Body Biography

Choose colors, graphics, and designs carefully. Place the following:

Heart: What represents the heart of the person and where should it be placed to identify what the person loves most? What should it look like and what shape, color, pictures, or symbols should be included?

Eyes: Where is this person's focus?

Backbone: What motivates this person the most? What gives this person strength?

Hands: What does this person hold in his or her hands—literal and figurative?

Feet: On what foundation is this person standing? What are the character's fundamental life beliefs?

The Background: What elements make up this person's environment/background?

Quotations: Quotes by or about this person that you feel represent them

Virtues and Vices: What are some admirable and negative qualities of this person?

Original Text: Create an original text that helps understand this character. Include the text somewhere appropriate on the body biography.
