- Attend the NCTE Annual Convention as many years as possible during their four-year tenure and participate in ELATE activities during convention week, particularly the ELATE Executive Committee meeting. It is strongly encouraged that each member attend the ELATE Executive Committee meeting at the Annual Convention because important business must be conducted at that time. For the ELATE Executive Committee meetings, members are provided a $50 per diem to help defray living expenses. (ELATE’s finances and its policies prevent paying travel expenses to conventions.)

ELATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE
CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE AND CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

Members of the English Language Arts Teacher Educators (ELATE) Executive Committee (EC) must reflect the highest standards of ethical behavior, integrity, and public responsibility. NCTE recognizes the inherent right of members of the ELATE Executive Committee to pursue outside interests. However, these outside interests may affect a transaction in which NCTE is involved or diminish NCTE’s ability to conduct objective and unbiased decision-making. If an actual or perceived conflict of interest exists, it is NCTE’s policy to require disclosure, and, whenever feasible, avoidance of actual or potential conflicts of interest.

Examples include:
- Serving as a paid consultant to NCTE or to a vendor to NCTE or to one of its subsidiaries or to affiliates;
- Serving in a fiduciary role for another organization that competes with NCTE or takes public positions adverse to those of NCTE;
- Receiving from NCTE an award, contract, grant, or sponsorship in excess of $1,000 annually;
- Investing significantly in an entity that deals with NCTE in a commercial capacity; or
- Having family members or business associates with these relationships.

ADVANCE DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENT AND REPORTING PROCEDURE
Each ELATE EC member will disclose each issue, subject, person, or entity in which s/he has a financial or other interest where there is the potential that the ELATE Executive Committee may make decisions that affect that issue, subject, person, or entity.

To ensure accurate, up-to-date information, each ELATE EC member will review his or her disclosure statement during on-site meetings and update as necessary.

Each ELATE EC member will describe clearly his or her interest in each such issue, subject, person, or entity on this form supplied by, and returned to, NCTE’s Executive Director. The information on this form will be reviewed by the NCTE Executive Director, and shared with ELATE’s Executive Committee if relevant to the discussion at hand. ELATE EC members are asked to sign this policy prior to the beginning of their board term. Thereafter, they update it at the first board meeting of each fiscal year.

IMMEDIATE DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENT AND REPORTING PROCEDURE
When the ELATE Executive Committee addresses an issue, subject, person, or entity in which a ELATE EC member has a financial or other interest that that ELATE EC member did not list on the annual disclosure form (whether because the ELATE EC member did not anticipate the matter arising or otherwise), s/he will immediately disclose the potential conflict.

If the ELATE EC member discovers the matter prior to the beginning of a ELATE Executive Committee meeting or call (e.g., upon reading the board agenda book), the ELATE EC member will provide the necessary disclosure to ELATE’s Chair. If the matter is discovered during a ELATE Executive Committee meeting or call, the ELATE EC member will immediately stop the conversation and inform the board of the potential for a conflict of interest. If the ELATE EC member feels that the issue requires confidential treatment, the ELATE EC member may instead inform the Chair (or, if the Chair is the one with the potential conflict, the Vice Chair) who will decide if the board needs to be informed of the matter.
PROCEDURE FOR DEALING WITH POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The ELATE Executive Committee will determine whether each issue raised on an annual form or on an ad hoc basis requires that the ELATE EC member’s participation be altered. The board may require that the ELATE EC member: (a) remove him- or herself from voting on the issue, (b) not participate in either the discussion of the issue or the vote on it, (c) leave the room during discussion and voting on the issue, or (d) merely explain his or her interest in the matter more fully so the ELATE Executive Committee may weigh that ELATE EC member’s participation with complete understanding of the situation. If warranted, the information will be reviewed by the Chair for evaluation and possible recommendation to the ELATE Executive Committee. The ELATE Executive Committee, not the volunteer making the disclosure, has the exclusive authority and responsibility to decide an appropriate reaction to the disclosure. This may be:

1. Disclosure. The disclosure of a volunteer’s other interest is worthy of the board’s attention. The disclosure itself, and the board’s awareness of the disclosure, is considered sufficient to correct for any bias it might entail. So the board is likely to decide although the volunteer clearly has some other interest, the board and/or committee will simply take the information into account as the volunteer participates in decision-making.

2. Recusal. The other interest that has been disclosed affects an important policy or program for the association. To assure the NCTE and its constituency that board decision-making is without bias, it is best for the volunteer to recuse him/herself when the board/committee takes reports, debates, or makes decisions about that policy or program. The volunteer is asked to leave the room for any discussion on the topic.

3. Resignation. The other interest relates to a continuing, pervasive, and important board or committee function, one that cannot easily be isolated on an agenda so as to permit recusal. In this case, the volunteer may be asked to resign his/her position, if this is the only way to ensure the other interest does not intrude upon and skew board decision-making. This is an extreme and rare result of a volunteer’s disclosure, but it is conceivable.

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Confidential information disclosed to members of the ELATE Executive Committee or executive staff will be treated as confidential. They may not use or disclose confidential information except as authorized by NCTE, and they should make their best efforts to prevent unauthorized disclosure. “Confidential information” includes that which is marked “Confidential” or which reasonably should be understood as expected to be kept in confidence, as well as deliberations, discussions, and debates on those matters, unless the information is available through public sources.

Unauthorized disclosure of confidential information could cause irreparable harm and significant injury to NCTE and its members. Upon request, any confidential information will be returned to NCTE.

ELATE Executive Committee Attendance Policy

The English Language Arts Teacher Educators Executive Committee members, elected by the ELATE membership to represent and serve the organization committed to English Language Arts teacher education, hold an Executive Committee Meeting at the NCTE Fall Convention. To assure that all members know the importance of attendance, the Executive Committee passed the following policy on November 21, 1996 at Chicago, Illinois.

Elected members of the ELATE Executive Committee who miss two meetings will receive a Letter from the ELATE Chair. The letter will state the importance of having each member’s voice in the Executive Committee discussions and will offer the member the opportunity to resign. The spirit of this letter is to acknowledge that sometimes people’s circumstances change and that they might welcome this option. If the member does not wish to resign, the letter will nudge the Executive Committee member to return to the meetings. If the member resigns, the person who received the next highest number of votes the year the original member was elected will be invited to serve the rest of the term. If a member of the ELATE Executive Committee misses three board meetings, the Chair will ask the board to consider replacing that member with the person who received the next highest number of votes. The ELATE Chair will assure that all appropriate paperwork at NCTE headquarters is completed.
Reimbursement and Expense Policy

ELATE Executive Committee members will receive a $50 per diem for attending the ELATE Executive Committee Meeting at the NCTE Annual Convention.

In addition, ELATE has allocated up to $1,000 for a ELATE Executive Committee dinner on Saturday evening of the NCTE Annual Convention.

At the NCTE Annual Convention, the required events for ELATE Executive Committee members are: the Executive Committee Meeting, the ELATE Luncheon, and the ELATE General Membership Meeting/Social.

English Language Arts Teacher Educators (ELATE)
Nominating Committee
Responsibilities & Activities

- Eight candidates are nominated and five are elected members to the ELATE Nominating Committee.
- Serve on the Nominating Committee for one year. The term begins in September of the year elected.
- The candidate receiving the largest number of votes automatically becomes chair.
- The nominating process is initiated when the Nominating Committee Chair receives nominations by mail (in response to a call placed in numerous Council journals.) The Chair circulates these names to the other committee members for consideration. NCTE staff will create a listserv for the committee for that purpose.
- The Nominating Committee initiates suggestions for nominations and may submit these suggestions individually by a group consensus.
- All of the nominating committees attend the Annual Convention in November. Section nominating committees meet on Saturday and Sunday mornings to discuss the names submitted by mail, to solicit further nominations, and to generate nominations from within the committee as needed. The individual dates, designated meeting places, and times will be detailed in a Procedures and Responsibilities memo sent in August.
- The committee’s work is essentially completed in mid-December. After convention, the work is finalized by e-mail and/or by telephone conversations.
- Under Council policy, the committee’s convention expenses cannot be paid, but expenses for postage and telephone calls are reimbursed.

All Nominating Committees:

- advise the following year’s Nominating Committee, upon request, of various aspects of the nominating process.
- agree not to stand for election to other conferences, sections, or nominating committees during their year on the Nominating Committee.
- will be ineligible for self-nomination.
- are sent a comprehensive set of guidelines for their work outlined in the Procedures and Responsibilities memo sent in August.
- candidates agree not to campaign during the election process.

SECTION 5: Annual Reports

Report from the English Language Arts Teacher Educators (ELATE)
July 2019

ELATE Biennial Conference
The 2019 Summer Conference, themed Advocacy and Activism: English Language Arts Teacher Education to Save the World, is happening later this week and will have concluded by the time the NCTE EC meets. A full range of panels, roundtable sessions, workshops, commission meetings, and advocacy/activism work groups are slated alongside plenary speakers Lauren Hogg, Ebony Elizabeth Thomas, the LatinX Theatre Project, and a featured panel consisting of Danielle Filipiak, Cathy Fleischer, Tara Star Johnson, Ryan Schey, and Ebony Elizabeth Thomas. But wait, there’s more! Our journal, English Education, is the birthday guest of honor at an opening reception marking 50 years of publication. Conference Committee members Sean Connors, Ken Lindblom, Tonya Perry, Shelbie Witte, and Anne Whitney help conceive of the conference and a local committee at the University of Arkansas—including faculty, graduate students from education and English, and two future K-6 teachers—planned several special events including a conference website for attendees, free yoga in the mornings, a writing marathon, and campus tours.

Several collaborations with the host institution were accessed to keep ELATE and attendee costs to a minimum including free ground transportation from the airport (College of Education & Health Professions Dean's Office), speaker fees for a plenary speaker (Initiative for 21st Century Literacies Research), registration for a local school teacher (UA Office of Teacher Education), registration for UA faculty and graduate students (UA Graduate School and International Education). The conference is the biggest single undertaking of ELATE.

NCTE Annual Convention
Program chairs for the 2019 annual convention in Baltimore are Latrise Johnson, EC member, and Ken Lindblom, past EC member. Both served in that capacity at Stage Two planning in Washington, D.C. in February and have selected a program that will push boundaries and enact the theme of spirited inquiry.

The ELATE Executive Committee will meet on Thursday before convention to conduct the business of the organization. Increasingly, it seems that EC members have conflicts with this required Thursday meeting due to NCTE beginning the conference on Thursday morning. Since this is the only required meeting of the year and it is critical to conducting the business of our group, this is cause for some concern.

New York Times best-selling author Rainbow Rowell will be the ELATE Luncheon Speaker in Baltimore. ELATE successfully separated its conference sessions with the business meeting and social hour, previously a source of consternation amongst membership.

English Education
Tara Star Johnson led two issues of the journal celebrating and marking the 50th anniversary of its publication, including contributions from multiple previous editors and Janet Emig award winners, the award our group gives for the best article in each calendar year. Melanie Shoffner was chosen as the next editor of English Education and was confirmed by unanimous e-ballot of the ELATE Executive Committee. A former chair of ELATE, her first issue will be published in October 2020.

Commissions
The work of ELATE is the work of the commissions and 13 different areas are currently the work in progress. Members of the ELATE Executive Committee all serve as liaisons to one or more commissions. At the 2016 EC meeting, it was brought to ELATE’s attention that the various commissions had vastly different methods for electing new chairs and/or plans for transitioning leadership. In an effort to alleviate some concerns from the past and set forward a plan that supports everyone moving forward, a small committee drafted the following guide.
Best Practices Guide for ELATE Commission Leadership

- In collaboration with the current chair or chairs, the liaison calls for nominations from the membership. In the case that nominations were collected in person at the commission meetings, it would still be best practice to send out a call to the remaining members who were not in attendance at the national conference.
- Following a three to five day period of time, the liaison will conduct an electronic election between nominated commission members. This election can also last three to five days.
- Once the election is completed, the liaison will notify the winner and losers, the commission membership, and the ELATE Chair (cc Kristen Suchor) of the results.
- We suggest that chairs serve for two years on staggered terms so that there is continuity of leadership in each commission. There are no term limits.

CAEP Revisions
In January 2019, a team of English language arts educators led by Troy Hicks submitted an updated standards document for the preparation of ELA teachers to the Council of Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP). This is a standard process that occurs every seven years and is required of most major professional organizations. The revisions were not accepted by CAEP and additional work was requested. Following a lengthy term in leading this work, Troy Hicks elected to step aside following this request; former committee members Donna Pasternak and Marshall George were appointed to lead a smaller team to complete the revisions and submit a response in July 2020. Some of the requests by CAEP will require, for example, a national study of the current standards. It is imperative that NCTE/ELATE maintains good standing with CAEP so that universities and colleges licensing teachers can continue to license future English teachers with our standards.

Report from the English Language Arts Teacher Educators (ELATE)
February 2019

NCTE Annual Convention
Mollie Blackburn concluded her tenure as chair of our organization which has undergone a name change and rebranding from the Conference on English Education to the English Language Arts Teacher Educators. The ELATE Executive Committee met on Thursday before convention to conduct the business of the organization. We were joined by guest speakers NCTE Executive Director Emily Kirkpatrick, NCTE President Jocelyn Chadwick, and NCTE/CAEP SPA guru Paul Yoder. Ken Lindblom, Tonya Perry, and Anne Whitney concluded their terms on the EC while Antero Garcia, Latrise Johnson, and Nicole Sieben began four-year terms. Additionally, Meghan Barnes concluded a term as ELATE Recording Secretary and Amanda Haertling-Thein was elected to serve a two year term.

The ELATE membership writ large offered a cacophony of papers, posters, roundtables, and workshops throughout the conference that were both well-attended and well-received. The ELATE Commissions hosted sessions and met twice during the conference. Young Adult author David Levithan served as luncheon speaker. Kristen Suchor thankfully and successfully kept all ELATE things running smoothly and on time. Program chairs for the 2019 Annual Convention are member Ken Lindblom, and Latrise Johnson, EC Member.

ELATE faced some criticism on scheduling prior to convention, specifically that several sessions were booked during the same time as the social, one of two times during the convention when many members get to network. In response to this, it was decided that ELATE will no longer hold ELATE sessions during the social hour event, typically reserved for the end of the day on Friday.

Finally, an ELATE tagged session (L.06) became one of the most controversial in recent memory due to remarks made by a panelist. (The session proposers wanted the session known as ELATE and the other categories as indicated in the Convention program.) NCTE, ELATE Commission on Social Justice, and others have responded; this is an ongoing topic of discussion/action.

ELATE Awards

Oviatt, doctoral student at Michigan State University, was recognized for “Exploring Arts-Based Inquiry and Multimodal Composing for Participatory Learning and Civic Participation for Transforming Critical Professional Development.” This award is focused on supporting the work of future scholars in the field of English education whose research advances the mission of ELATE. Finances
It was reported at the November ELATE Executive Committee meeting that membership as of September 30, 2018 was 5% higher than the same time during the previous year. Budget for the 2019 Summer Conference was approved by a unanimous vote. The EC agreed to fund the two to three members of the CAEP Standards Committee to attend/present at the NCTE Assembly for Research conference held in Birmingham, AL.

Ad Hoc Committees
The work of two Ad Hoc Committees, both charged by Mollie Blackburn, have led to significant changes and proposed changes for ELATE.

The CAEP Standards Committee
Working to revise, update, and align current accreditation standards with the new accrediting body, this committee’s charge was carried out by chair Troy Hicks and members: Antero Garcia, Marshall George, Donna L. Pasterna, Heather Rocco, Luke Rodesiler, Sophia Sarigianides, Jon Wargo, Lindy Johnson, and Elsie Olan. This group submitted their suggested changes to NCTE leadership in late January.

Mentoring Committee
Considering the various mentoring programs offered by ELATE and the ELATE Graduate Strand with an eye towards simplifying and promoting the mentoring work happening within ELATE, the Mentoring Committee (Chris Goering, Chair; Todd Destigter, Member; Mandie Dunn/Ryan Schey, Member; Amanda Haertling-Thein, Member; Tonya Perry, Member; Yolanda Sealy-Ruiz, Melanie Shoffner) moved the committee elected to collapse the Graduate Strand mentoring program and the L. Ramon Veal Research Roundtables to become the same event under the Veal name. Melanie Shoffner and Mandie Dunn agreed to lead the transition between the two previously separate entities. The ELATE Mentoring program remained unchanged.

2019 Summer Conference
Advocacy and Activism: English Language Arts Teacher Education to Save the World, the 2019 ELATE Summer Conference, is set to be held in Fayetteville, AR from July 18-21 and will feature panels, workshops, roundtables, a performance by the LatinX Youth Theatre Group and a keynote talk by Ebony Elizabeth Thomas. From the call for proposals: “Post-election [2016], the country and our field are faced with a moment of civic reckoning. A mandate, to recognize and guide youth's politicized identities within classrooms, must be taken up by teacher educators” (Garcia & Dutro, 2018, p. 380). The time is now to reinvent and reinvigorate what it means to prepare English teachers, but doing so without building on the foundation of leadership, scholarship, tradition, and resolve on which our profession was built would be foolhardy. ELATE received 130 proposals for the conference, the most in the history of the summer conference.

NCTE Annual Convention
Carmen Kynard, Tom McCann, and Melanie Shoffner completed their terms on the CEE EC, and Todd deStigter, Mandie Dunn (ex oficio), Sophia Sarigianides, and Yolanda Sealey-Ruiz joined the EC.

CEE offered numerous well-attended roundtable discussions, panels, and presentations focused on issues in English education during the Convention, with the CEE Commissions meeting twice during the Convention to discuss and move forward with various projects. Angie Thomas, award-winning author of The Hate U Give was the very well-received CEE luncheon speaker. Program chairs for the 2018 Convention are Chris Goering, Vice-Chair, and Ken Lindblom, EC member.

CEE Awards

CEE Graduate Student Research Award
The recipients of the CEE Graduate Student Research Award were Chris Bacon and Joelle Pedersen of Boston College, Chestnut Hill, MA for their paper entitled “It’s Like Close Reading for Identity: A Framework for Writing as Discourse with Teachers of Linguistically Diverse Learners.” This award is focused on supporting the work of future scholars in the field of English education whose research advances the mission of CEE. One award is given yearly.

James N. Britton Award
The James N. Britton Award was not awarded this year. When it is, it is to encourage English Language Arts teacher development, consistent with the major goal of CEE, by promoting classroom-based research in which teachers at any educational level raise questions about teaching and learning in their own teaching/learning settings.

Janet Emig Award
The Janet Emig Award was awarded to Detra Price-Dennis of Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, NY for her articles entitled, “Developing Curriculum to Support Black Girls’ Literacies in Digital Spaces,” published in English Education in July 2016 The award is given in honor of Janet Emig, Professor Emeritus of English education at Rutgers University, for her contribution to the field of English education.

Richard Meade Award for Research in English Education
The Richard Meade Award is awarded, typically, in even years. The award is given to recognize published research-based work that promotes English language arts teacher development at any educational level and in any scope and setting.

James Moffett Memorial Award for Teacher Research
The James Moffett Award was awarded to Jonna Kuskey for his project entitled “Writing for a Real-World Reason.” This award is a grant (usually $1000) offered by CEE, in conjunction with the National Writing Project, to support teacher research projects that further the spirit and scholarship of James Moffett.

Geneva Smitherman Cultural Diversity Award
The Geneva Smitherman Cultural Diversity Award was awarded to Anthony Celaya for his presentation entitled, “From Fact to Fiction to Action: Using YA Literature for Participatory Action Research” and Nicholas Rink for his presentation entitled “Re-positioning ‘At-risk’ Students’ Experiences with the Trauma of Normative Schooling Practices.” This grant is given to first-time NCTE Annual Conference presenters who are members of groups historically underrepresented in NCTE and CEE.

CEE Research Initiative Award
The CEE Research Initiative Award was awarded to the following recipients:
1. Cati V. de los Ríos of University of California, Riverside for her project, “Developing Students’ Ethnic Studies Literacies: An Ethnographic Study of One Urban English Classroom”

2. Michelle Fowler-Amato of Old Dominion University and Amber Warrington of Boise State University for their project, “Seeking Antideficit English Education Through Teacher/Researcher Collaborations”

3. Alison Heron Hruby of Morehead State University and James Chisholm of University of Louisville for their project, “Learning to Teach Writing Using Digital Mediation: Teacher Candidates as Online Writing Mentors for High School Students”

4. Stephanie Shelton of The University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa for her project “An Intersectional Approach to English Education: Professional Development and Classroom Implementation”

This award is given in support of research projects that advance the mission of CEE and contribute to CEE’s efforts to communicate more effectively with different audiences.

Commissions
We voted to accept proposals for three new commissions, one entitled “Family and Community Literacies,” another entitled “Everyday Advocacy,” and, finally, one entitled, “History of English Education.”

Finances
We voted to allocate $4500 to rebranding CEE. We budgeted $6000 for the CAEP Standards revision committee to meet, but they have not yet used those funds.

Position Statement, Name Change, and Rebranding
Melanie Shoffner led a committee to revise the CEE position statement. This has been revised and the executive committee voted to support it in our November meeting.

Melanie Shoffner also led a committee to identify a new name for CEE. They came up with English Language Arts Teacher Educators (ELATE). The CEE EC voted to support it, so it went to a vote by the membership, which also voted in support. The name change will be gradually implemented after July 1 this summer and more dramatically at the Convention in November.

In response to the EC allocation of funds, a committee worked with Brains on Fire to develop a new logo using the new name. Like the name, it will begin being used this summer, but more dramatically so at the Convention in November.

Ad Hoc Committees
- Tonya Perry continues to lead an ad hoc committee on Membership Support to continue the work started by last year’s committee, particularly in term of information about edTPA and writing SPA reports.
- Chris Goering is leading an ad hoc committee on Mentor Programs to examine CEE mentorship programs: the CEE Early Career Faculty Mentorship Program, the Veal Seminar, and the CEE Graduate Student Strand Mentorship Program to propose a way forward that serves distinct purposes. They appointed Shoffner to lead the Veal Seminar for 2018 Convention.
- Troy Hicks is leading an ad hoc committee on CEE Standards to submit to CAEP. We identified Donna Pasternak as a potential board member to represent CEE on CAEP.
- Ken Lindblom and Leslie Rush agreed to work together as an ad hoc committee to create a clear, concise, accessible document offering tips to ELA teacher educators preparing to produce SPA reports.
- Amanda Thein and Anne Whitney agreed to work together as an ad hoc committee to draft a policy and/or procedure for offering funds to support CEE commissions.

REPORT FROM THE CONFERENCE ON ENGLISH EDUCATION (CEE)
February 2018

NCTE Annual Convention
We voted in support of a new position statement. This ad hoc committee was led by Melanie Shoffner and included David Schaafsma (EC member), Janet Alsup, Antero Garcia, Marcelle Haddix, Michael Moore, Ernest Morrell, Leah Zuidema. We also voted to propose a new name to the membership, since this would be a constitutional change. The proposed name is English Language Arts Teacher Education (ELATE). This ad hoc committee was led, again, by Melanie Shoffner and included Rob Petrone (EC member), Marshall George, Detra Price-Dennis, and possibly Gholnescar Muhammad.

Carmen Kynard, Tom McCann, and Melanie Shoffner completed their terms on the CEE EC, and Todd DeStigter, Sophia Sarigianides, and Yolanda Sealey-Ruiz joined the EC. Further, Mandie Dunn, graduate student representative, and Nicole Mirra, CITE editor, joined as an ex officio members of the EC. Chris Goering was elected Vice-Chair.

CEE offered numerous well-attended roundtable discussions, panels, and presentations focused on issues in English education during the Convention, with the CEE Commissions meeting twice during the Convention to discuss and move forward with various projects. Angie Thomas of award-winning The Hate U Give was the hugely popular CEE luncheon speaker. Program chairs for the 2018 Convention are Chris Goering, newly elected Vice-Chair, and Ken Lindblom, EC member.

CEE Awards
Awards given were announced at Convention.

Geneva Smitherman Cultural Diversity Award
The Geneva Smitherman Cultural Diversity Award was awarded to Anthony Celaya for the project entitled “From fact to fiction to action: Using YA literature for participatory action research” and Nicholas Rink for the project entitled “Re-positioning ‘at-risk’ students’ experiences with the trauma of normative schooling practices.” This grant is given to first-time NCTE Annual Conference presenters who are members of groups historically underrepresented in NCTE and CEE.

James Moffett Memorial Award for Teacher Research
The James Moffett Award was awarded to Jonna Kuskey for the project entitled “Writing for a real-world reason.” This award is a grant (usually $1000) offered by CEE, in conjunction with the National Writing Project, to support teacher research projects that further the spirit and scholarship of James Moffett.

James N. Britton Award
The James N. Britton Award was not awarded this year. This award is to encourage English Language Arts teacher development, consistent with the major goal of CEE, by promoting classroom-based research in which teachers at any educational level raise questions about teaching and learning in their own teaching/learning settings.

CEE Graduate Student Research Award
The recipients of the CEE Graduate Student Research Award were Chris Bacon and Joelle Pederson of Boston College for their paper entitled"It’s like close reading for identity: A Framework for writing as discourse with teachers of linguistically diverse learners." This award is focused on supporting the work of future scholars in the field of English education whose research advances the mission of CEE. One award is given yearly.

Janet Emig Award
The Janet Emig Award was awarded to Detra Price-Dennis for her article “Developing Curriculum to Support Black Girls’ Literacies in Digital Spaces,” published in English Education in July 2016. The award is given in honor of Janet Emig, Professor Emeritus of English education at Rutgers University, for her contribution to the field of English education.

James N. Britton Award
The James N. Britton Award was not awarded this year. This award encourages English Language Arts teacher development, consistent with the major goal of CEE, by promoting classroom-based research in which teachers at any educational level raise questions about teaching and learning in their own teaching/learning settings.

National Technology Leadership Award
The National Technology Leadership Award was awarded to Rebecca Beucher for her 2017 NCTE Annual Convention presentation, “#NoDAPL: Consciously designing culturally situated resistance pedagogy for 21st century youth.” This award provides an opportunity to present at the annual Society for Information Technology in Teacher Education (SITE) international conference.

EC members were assigned to chair or serve on the award committees.

CEE Research Initiative Award

The CEE Research Initiative Award was awarded to the following recipients:
1. Cati V. de los Ríos of University of California, Riverside for the project entitled “Developing Students’ Ethnic Studies Literacies: An Ethnographic Study of One Urban English Classroom”
2. Michelle Fowler-Amato of Old Dominion University, and Amber Warrington, Boise State University for the project entitled “Seeking Antideficit English Education Through Teacher/Researcher Collaborations”
3. Alison Heron Hruby of Morehead State University, and James Chisholm, University of Louisville for the project entitled “Learning to Teach Writing Using Digital Mediation: Teacher Candidates as Online Writing Mentors for High School Students”
4. Stephanie Shelton of The University of Alabama, Tuscaloosa for the project entitled “An Intersectional Approach to English Education: Professional Development and Classroom Implementation”

This award is given in support of research projects that advance the mission of CEE and contribute to CEE’s efforts to communicate more effectively with different audiences.

Commissions

We received reports from and assigned EC members as liaisons to commissions. We voted in support of a new Commission on Family and Community Literacies, at the conference. Since then, we have also voted for a new Commission on Everyday Advocacy.

Finances

We voted to spend $4,500 to rebrand CEE.

Ad Hoc Committees

The following ad hoc committees have been formed:

Membership Support

This committee is chaired by Tonya Perry and includes Meghan Barnes, Troy Hicks, Ken Lindblom, Nicole Mirra, David Schaafsma, and Yolanda Sealey-Ruiz.

Mentor Programs

This committee is chaired by Chris Goering and includes Todd DeStigter, Mandie Dunn, Tonya Perry, Yolanda Sealey-Ruiz, Melanie Shoffner, and Amanda Thein. The charge is to examine CEE mentorship programs: the CEE early career Faculty Mentorship Program, the Veal Seminar, and the CEE Graduate Student Strand Mentorship Program to propose a way forward that serves distinct purposes.

Standards Committee

This committee is chaired by Troy Hicks. He is assembling the committee now. The charge is to examine and potentially revise the standards for teacher education.

Other efforts include the following: Amanda Thein and Anne Whitney will draft a policy and/or procedure for offering funds to support CEE commissions. Ken Lindblom and Leslie Rush will draft a one-pager on SPA reports to support ELA teacher educators. Ken Lindblom and Nicole Mirra will work with others to produce smart, pragmatic messages, issue briefs from CEE for NCTE staff.

Rob Petrone has agreed to represent CEE on NCTE’s CAEP committee.
SECTION 6: Agendas/Minutes

Agenda
November 15, 2018
George R. Brown Convention Center, 352 C
Houston, Texas

1. Welcome & Introductions
2. Adoption of the Agenda
3. Conflict of Interest Disclaimer – All new and continuing EC members must bring a completed 2018-19 form to the Thursday meeting and give to Kristen Suchor prior to the start of the meeting. If you forget your form, Kristen will have extras. (If any EC members who are rotating off need to update their 2017-18 form, please see Kristen at the meeting.)
4. Approval of the Minutes, ELATE EC Meeting, November 2017; ELATE EC Online Meeting, May 21, 2018
5. Acceptance of the Consent Agenda Reports
   CONSENT AGENDA: Organizations having a large number of routine matters to approve often save time by use of a consent agenda. This is a portion of the printed agenda listing matters that are expected to be non-controversial and on which there are likely to be no questions.

Before taking the vote, the chair allows time for the members to read the list to determine if it includes any matters on which they may have a question, or which they would like to discuss or oppose. Any member has a right to remove any item from the consent agenda, in which case it is transferred to the regular agenda so that it may be considered and voted on separately. The remaining items are then unanimously approved en bloc without discussion, saving the time that would be required for individual votes.

ELATE EC liaisons reported on the work of ELATE Commissions, as follows (Agenda Item VI):

1. Commission on Social Justice in English Education (Briana Asmus and Chaz H. Gonzalez)
   - In their report, the Commission Co-Chairs asked if there could be a way for commissions to share their work with other commissions.
   - Commission Liaisons are asked to address the following at their commission meetings during NCTE:
     - Ask commission members if they feel a need to share their work with others
     - Show commission members the ELATE webpage about the commissions to ensure that they are aware of the page and to ask if there is more information they would like about the current work of the commissions
     - Ask commission members to tweet their commission work after the meetings on Friday and Saturday
   - Thein also requested that commissions update their reports each year.

2. Commission to Support Early-Career ELA Teachers (Anna J. Small Roseboro & Claudia A. Marschall)
   - Blackburn asked if there are more ways that we can help the commission get the word out about the Emeritus Assembly Scholarship Award. Suchor clarified that this is an award to early-career teachers and their mentors to attend NCTE. Thein recommended changing the name of the award to the Emeritus Assembly Scholarship Award for New Teachers.
   - Suchor clarified that in order to be eligible for the award, individuals must be in their first 1-5 years of full-time classroom teaching and they must be presenting at the conference. Mentors are retired teachers who volunteer to mentor early-career teachers.
   - Dunn suggested announcing the award in the ELATE Graduate Student newsletter and also at the Future is Now, organized by Alan Brown and Luke Rodesiler.
   - Lindblom agreed to take the EC’s recommendations to the commission meeting during NCTE.

3. Commission on Arts and Literacies (Kathie Macro and Michelle Zoss)
   - In their report, the commission co-chairs reiterated a previous request that NCTE include an arts-based strand for conference proposals. Blackburn talked with Frankie Sibberson about this request and Sibberson indicated that they receive a number of requests for additional strands each year and she’s unable to honor all requests. The Commission Liaison will report this information back to the commission.

4. Commission Leadership
   - Thein asked how commission chairs are selected. Blackburn said that commissions select them, but that each commission has their own process.
   - Goering reviewed his commission’s process:
- The Liaison received the membership list and emailed the list asking for nominations to leadership. The Liaison facilitated a vote among the membership.
  - Thein suggested that this might be a process that ELATE ask all commissions to follow, every 2 years. Thein and Goering will work on formalizing a process that can be shared with all commissions.

The ELATE Financial Report was given by Jon Coffman and Emily Kirkpatrick (Agenda item VII.A).
- Kirkpatrick announced that NCTE’s investment in rebranding has positively impacted ELATE. In the future, NCTE may recommend projects to ELATE aimed at membership engagement.
- Kirkpatrick shared a 2019 calendar of NCTE-related initiatives with the EC.
- Lindblom asked for NCTE’s perspective on the recent election. Kirkpatrick recommended that people attend the Board of Director’s meeting on Friday if they want to hear more of NCTE’s position.
- Kirkpatrick suggested that NCTE is working on a planned gift for ELATE. There is an anonymous donor who is interested in funding an award within ELATE.
- Coffman shared that membership dues revenues are comparable to the previous year, although there is a slight uptick in membership in the current year. Coffman also said the ELATE contingency fund has remained stable over the past few years.
- Kirkpatrick announced that this year’s conference attendance is the highest it’s been since 2007! This is the first time NCTE has been in Houston in 53 years, so NCTE has worked hard to build partnerships with local schools and districts to encourage teachers to attend the conference. Kirkpatrick also mentioned that the exhibit hall has grown – more trade publishers, not more testing agencies.
- Kirkpatrick also thanked ELATE for their work on the Digital Literacy Teacher Education position statement (led by Tom Lynch).

NCTE/CAEP SPA Update by Paul Yoder (Agenda Item VII.B)
- Yoder announced that a number of programs are leaving CAEP, but they want to stay with NCTE SPA. More programs are reaching out to NCTE to learn what they are doing. NCTE is now looking for an alternative recognition process -- an external self-review study for programs that want to come to NCTE. Yoder would like to pursue this option in a more deliberate manner.
- Sarigianides asked what NCTE’s relationship is with AQIP (which her institution is using in place of CAEP). Yoder clarified that NCTE provides a service to CAEP (to ensure that they are meeting NCTE standards). Neither Yoder nor NCTE are currently working with AQIP and NCTE is not formally working with AQIP either.
- The standards that NCTE uses for ELA accreditation belong to NCTE, so they could be applied elsewhere (outside of CAEP).
- Yoder is unsure what the next steps in this process are and asks the EC where they stand and their recommendations.
- Hicks clarified that he’s hearing 2 things: (1) do we divorce CAEP and do our own accreditation and (2) do we stay with CAEP and also do our own work. Blackburn clarified that she doesn’t hear the group saying that they want to divorce CAEP, but that they are interested in the 2nd option above. Yoder reiterated that he’s not advocating for leaving CAEP. Instead, Yoder is asking if NCTE wants to serve as a SPA-like review for institutions, apart from CAEP. Essentially, CAEP is one place we take our standards, but what other places might we want to take our standards?
- Rush asked if the group could have a motion to show support to Yoder’s initiative.
Yoder would like to: (1) talk with other accreditation agencies and gauge their interest in collaborating with NCTE (using our standards in their process), and/or (2) doing a self-study over the next year to determine what NCTE could offer to other programs, and/or (3) clarify that we are not making a motion to leave CAEP.

2018.5 Motion to support that NCTE explore using NCTE standards to create ELA reviews for accreditors other than and in addition to CAEP, and for programs wishing to pursue ELA review reports independently of a national accreditor (Lindblom, Sarigianides). CARRIED. (Agenda Item VII.B)

Update from the NCTE Presidential Team: Jocelyn Chadwick
- The NCTE Presidential Team is committed to incorporating more NCTE members into task forces. In particular, the EC is making a concentrated effort to hear and incorporate more voices from members (outside of those serving in leadership positions).

ELATE Mentoring (Chris Goering - oral)
- Goering hosted a Zoom call with multiple members of ELATE EC to discuss ELATE mentoring. Based on that meeting, they make the following recommendations: Melanie will take over the VEAL mentoring, the ELATE Online Mentoring program will remain the same for now, and next year the VEAL mentoring and ELATE GS round table will be combined.
- Goering said the committee is also interested in mentoring mid-career faculty (how do you move from assistant to associate professor, for example). This is an area that Goering’s committee will continue working on.
- Blackburn said that she and Bob Fecho have started a similar mentoring program through AERA and that it can be effective to have this type of mentoring program outside of the university.
- Goering said the Online Mentoring Program asks that grad students write in with their interests and goals and then Goering matches them with appropriate mentors (the grad students aren’t requesting specific mentors, necessarily). Goering suggested that publicizing the mentoring program is an important component to pay attention to in the future.

2019 ELATE Summer Conference (Chris Goering - oral)
- The 6th ELATE conference will be hosted by the University of Arkansas. The conference theme is: Advocacy and Activism: ELA Teacher Education to Save the World. Once the budget has been voted on, more information will be shared about the conference. January 23rd is the deadline for proposals. The conference will take place: July 18-21st, 2019. EC members will need to arrive on July 17th for the EC meeting.
- Goering wants the conference to have a working group feel so that they have something to share at the end of the conference.
- Blackburn reminded the EC that they will be responsible for reviewing conference proposals in February & March.

CEL Liaison (Ken Lindblom)
- Lindblom suggests that the Conference on English Leadership (CEL) is a group that we should be working with closely.

- Suchor said ELATE has had these types of liaison relationships in the past and they have not consistently been effective and there are also budgetary considerations to adding a person to the board.
- Lindblom suggested that every year ELATE members propose a panel at the CEL conference and that we invite their members to present at the ELATE conference.
- Lindblom recommended having a few specific tasks that CEL and ELATE folks could collaborate on (e.g., creating a pamphlet about how to be a good cooperating teacher).
- Rush recommended that there should be further discussion to determine what connections there are, from the perspective of CEL members.
- Blackburn clarified that we’ll continue to discuss ways to be active with CEL, but that we will not move forward with having a formal liaison added to our EC (from the CEL).

Action Items were discussed.

Janet Emig Award: Discussion of Decade Award for 1979-1989 (Tara Star Johnson - oral)

- This year is the 50th anniversary of English Education. So far, Johnson has developed an issue that highlights the voices of former English Education editors. Johnson would like to have former English Education editors come together to "do something." Johnson proposed having former English Education editors work together to determine an Emig Award Winner for the 1980s..
- Blackburn recommended that there be an ad hoc committee formed to determine the 1980s decade winner and that committee should be made up of current and former English Editor editors: Johnson (chair), Rush, and Schaafsma.

Proposal for an ELATE Commission on Climate Change (David Schaafsma and Todd DeStigter)

- Schaafsma and a group (including DeStigter, Richard Beach, and Russ Mayo) have submitted a proposed resolution (signed by over 100 people) that they will discuss during the business meeting at NCTE. During the business meeting, they will present the resolution and people will vote.
- The resolution is also connected to the proposed Commission on Climate Change.
- Goering asked if the commission was too specific and if climate change might be addressed by other commissions (like the Commission on Social Justice). Schaafsma reiterated that social justice includes everything, so it’s important to pinpoint specific topics/foci (like Climate Change).
- Lindblom suggested forming a task force with a very specific set of goals/outcomes, rather than a commission. Schaafsma questioned the effectiveness of forming a task force to discuss forming a commission.
- Garcia, DeStigter, and Schaafsma discussed the potential for the group collaborating with others (within and outside of NCTE) around the climate change initiative.
- Blackburn received a request to do a ballot vote.

ELATE Commission Liaisons, 2018-2019

- Blackburn asked if there were any questions or concerns about the proposed liaison assignments that were shared. There were none.

ELATE Award Committees, 2018-2019

NCTE 2018 ELATE Program Events (Luncheon, Awards Sessions, Membership Meeting)
- The ELATE Luncheon is on Friday & Sariaginides will introduce the speaker.
- Blackburn asked that the EC attend the award sessions to support the award winners:
  - ELATE Award Session on Friday
  - Research Initiative on Saturday
- ELATE membership meeting is Friday @3:30

2019 NCTE Annual Convention, Baltimore, MD (Mollie V. Blackburn – oral)
- Blackburn announced that the theme will be Spirited Inquiry and the conference will be led by Leah Zuidema.

ELATE Strand and Scheduling at the NCTE Annual Convention (Chris Goering – oral)
- Goering expressed concern that a number of ELATE-related sessions have been scheduled at the same time as the ELATE Business Meeting & Social. Kirkpatrick and Suchor have been working on this issue and looking for solutions.
- Goering offered a few solutions: (a) move the Business Meeting and Social to Thursday night (which conflicts with other section get-togethers), (b) there will be no other ELATE-tagged sessions during the Business Meeting and Social (but this would crunch up other times more and potentially conflict with other ELATE-related events like the luncheon), or (c) make the Business Meeting & Social a bigger event.
- Rush asked if the meeting & social could be held at a later time (like 5:00 or later), but Suchor said that would conflict with general sessions. Suchor indicated that having the meeting & social on Thursday night would mean that ELATE members would need to miss other section events.
- Suchor suggested the following: All EC committee members’ sessions could be scheduled around big events (like the luncheon and business meeting), EC members could flag particular sessions that should not conflict with major ELATE events, sessions need to be clearly marked as ELATE, and/or tag EC members alongside the business meeting and social (so other sessions they’re a part of won’t be scheduled to present at the same time).
- Goering asked if EC members could be tagged on the lunch and the social, and Suchor said that would be possible.

Announcements and Thanks.
- Perry announced the 2019 NCTEAR conference to be held in February. Rich Milner and Valerie Kinloch will speak. Perry encourages people to submit proposals.
- Garcia discussed the proposal for the Standards Committee Members to be able to attend NCTEAR to discuss their work. Ideally, they would like for the EC to financially support a couple committee members to travel to the conference. Blackburn clarified that there was some money allocated for the committee to meet to work in person, and

FY 2019 ELATE Budget and 2020 ELATE Conference Budget Approval

- Suchor provided the following information about the budgets:
  - Expenses are well-balanced with income this year.
  - $6000 had been earmarked for a group meeting about the CAEP standards, but they aren’t going to need to meet in person, so that money will feed back into the budget.
  - More money is being budgeted for Member Services ($3000 more) in FY19. Those funds are aligned with the re-brand.
Membership numbers are stabilizing and beginning to improve. Institutional subscriptions to English Education are trending down, but there is some extra effort being put into increasing those subscriptions.

- DeStigter asked what efforts Suchor/NCTE has been making to increase membership. Suchor responded:
  - NCTE has looked at the renewal process over the past few years and has contracted with a vendor to take over that process so that renewal information is shared with members more consistently and clearly. Renewal rates for NCTE were very low prior to these revisions.
  - There will be a new process for getting new members.
  - In terms of institutional subscriptions, Suchor said she’s not part of that team, but she knows that’s the next step in the renewal process.
- Suchor said that ELATE uses some of their contingency funds for research grants. The money for the research grants will slowly cause the contingency funds to decrease overall. Blackburn asked what happens if the research grant money depreciates the Contingency Fund money (i.e., the fund isn’t reimbursed by the conference). Suchor said there would be a series of conversations about how to stabilize the funds prior to that happening.
- For FY19, expenses are expected to be $68000 and income will be approximately $71000. Suchor reviewed the specific breakdown of expenses for ELATE.

2018:1
To adopt the FY19 Budget. (DeStigter, Lindblom) CARRIED

Summer 2019 Conference Budget

- Suchor reviewed the ELATE conference budget and indicated that we are budgeting for $57,000 for income, however part of this will be washed out by dorm room expenditures.
  - ELATE will not be charged for meeting room spaces.
  - All funds will be used for speakers, food, staff travel, etc.
  - There will be a slight increase in conference registration fees each year moving forward.
- Suchor said we are expecting this meeting to be a loss to the organization. Suchor is talking with Emily Kirkpatrick about strategies for increasing registration numbers and getting additional income.
- Goering is putting together the planning committee now.
- Blackburn asked what ideas Suchor and Kirkpatrick have discussed for additional income. Suchor said there aren’t any specifics yet, but there is potential to find sponsors. Suchor clarified that any ideas would ultimately be approved by the EC and that the ELATE conference was never intended to be a money-maker and that the EC shouldn’t be alarmed by the negative income from the conference.
- Johnson asked if there might be some collaboration between the conference and English Education, since this is the 50-year anniversary of the journal. Suchor suggested that Johnson should bring a proposal to Goering and/or to the EC as a whole by November. Other EC members liked the idea of a collaboration.

2018:2
To adopt the Summer 2018 Conference Budget. (Haertling-Thein, Sealey-Ruiz) CARRIED
ELATE Roll-Out Strategy

- Blackburn shared the black-and-white version of the new logo with the group. The group discussed the logo and Blackburn clarified the meaning of different aspects of the image. Blackburn indicated that the colors will be a muted orange and a darker blue.
- Mirra asked how/when the rebranding would affect the CITE website. Suchor said it’s easiest to roll out the rebrand and rename at the same time, because it will be hard to update websites for just one aspect of the organization. Suchor suggested that ELATE begin a soft roll-out around July 1st.
  - For English Education, the new logo etc. will be incorporated into the October 2018 issue.
- Sealey-Ruiz asked if we could roll out the rebranding in phases and what would that timeline look like. Suchor said the rebranding will happen in phases regardless, but she was unsure what the order of the phasing would be. The immediate, digital components (like to the CITE website) can happen immediately (as soon as the EC is ready).
- Lindblom suggested that we roll out the name and logo before the conference and then provide swag at the ELATE business meeting at NCTE.
- Blackburn asked for recommendations for swag. Many ideas were discussed, with the following being most popular:
  - To purchase: t-shirts, insulated bottle, coffee mugs.
  - To give away: stickers, pop-socket for cell phone, and lapel pins.
- Suchor recommended limiting to 1-2 items to start and then producing more for the summer 2019 conference.

2019 ELATE Summer Conference Update

- The conference will be held July 11-14, 2019 at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville.
- The ELATE EC meeting will be held on Thursday.
- Dorm rooms will be approx. $62/night for singles; meal package is affordable.
- There will be a meal gathering, but that day/time has not been determined yet.
- The new proposal system (that’s being used for NCTE) will be used for the ELATE summer conference as well!

Updating the 2012 Standards for CAEP

- Hicks put together a group to revise the CAEP standards and to draft a revision by July 1, 2018.
- The group has met about once per month since February 1. They began by collecting data about the standards and peoples’ experiences with the standards as possible and found that people are generally happy with the standards and are particularly interested in the social justice standards. The overall group has divided into smaller groups who are working on each of the standards (looking at language, etc.).
- The group will meet next week. Troy might be requesting that the group be able to meet in-person one day before NCTE gets started.
- The consensus is that not too much needs to be changed. Attention is being paid to the use of the term “adolescent” throughout the standards.
- Sarigianides discussed the use of “adolescent” in the first standard for Content Knowledge, Element 2. The standard, as written, essentializes the group and assumes that “adolescents” as a group learn to read differently from any other group. She recommends just using the term “students” in general. Sarigianides also pointed out that the title of the document clearly indicates what age group is the focus. Haertling-Thein agreed with Sarigianides.
Hicks asked if the EC had any more questions/concerns. Hicks said that he’s unsure how CAEP will respond to removing the term “adolescent.”

- Sarigianides said that if they’re unsure about the change, it would probably be because they don’t know about the history of adolescence.
- Blackburn recommended not underscoring the reasons why the term is problematic, and instead focusing on the redundancy of having the title and the term “adolescent” used throughout.
- DeStigter recommended asking: what do you gain by putting the word “adolescent” into the standard? The only thing you really gain is to drag in the social construct of adolescence that is problematic to begin with.

ELATE Mentoring Recommendations
- Shoffner will take the lead on the VEAL round table and will start thinking through how to make that and the ELATE mentors more compatible.
- DeStigter said that they’re working to get input from grad students at the outset.
- Haertling-Thein said she would like to see more mentoring opportunities for mid-career faculty.
- Dunn said scheduling at the NCTE conference caused problems for the GS round table sessions (which were scheduled for the same time as the commission meetings). Suchor said that she will talk with Julie May about resolving this morning forward.

2018 NCTE Convention ELATE Programming
- Lindblom said ELATE received a number of good proposals this year.

ELATE Oral History Project and Commission Proposal
- Blackburn clarified that the primary goal of the newly-proposed commission is to conduct an oral history project via interviews (etc.).

2018.3 To accept the adoption of the commission (Sarigianides, Hicks). CARRIED

Respectfully submitted,
Meghan Barnes

5. Acceptance of the Consent Agenda Reports
   CONSENT AGENDA: Organizations having a large number of routine matters to approve often save time by use of a consent agenda. This is a portion of the printed agenda listing matters that are expected to be non-controversial and on which there are likely to be no questions.

Before taking the vote, the chair allows time for the members to read the list to determine if it includes any matters on which they may have a question, or which they would like to discuss or oppose. Any member has a right to remove any item from the consent agenda, in which case it is transferred to the regular agenda so that it may be considered and voted on separately. The remaining items are then unanimously approved en bloc without discussion, saving the time that would be required for individual votes.

The CEE Financial Report was given by Jon Coffman and Emily Kirkpatrick (Agenda item VII.A).

- Coffman is working to streamline the collection and reporting on data, so he has revised the visuals that will be used to share reports (moving away from spreadsheets).
  Coffman shared first quarter results of FY17. Coffman apologized for the delay in reporting this information. Coffman pointed out that membership in NCTE has trended downward over the past few years. NCTE is currently working to rebuild membership.
- There has been positive growth the first quarter; membership dues are below budget; expenses are tracking below; FY17 ended the year with positive income.
- Coffman reviewed the CEE Statement of Activities and the CEE Summary of Reserves.
- Coffman clarified that every NCTE group must have 1.5x annual operating expenses in their reserves.
- Shoffner asked a question about the money received from the summer CEE conference. Coffman clarified what some of the major expenses were. Shoffner said that CEE has used CEE conference money to cover losses from the contingency in the past. Shoffner said the CEE/IFTTE Conference was a different situation because of the partnership across the 2 organizations – CEE made a bit more money that year than during the 2017 CEE conference. Kirkpatrick said that conferences (like CEE) are staying about the same in terms of how much money they’re making and how many people are attending. Kirkpatrick said that it’s challenging for conferences the scale of CEE to make a significant profit. Suchor also clarified that we treat the CEE Conference like a retreat, rather than like a “true conference.”
- Shoffner said that it looked like the English Education journal is losing money. Coffman clarified that the journal is linked to membership and said that if membership continues to decline, then CEE will need to control costs on the journal. Coffman said that he doesn’t have any data that signifies that it would be more cost effective to move the journal entirely online.
- Blackburn clarified what counts as contingency money. Coffman clarified that if CEE hits its FY17 budget, then $6000 will be added to the contingency fund at the end of FY18.
- Kirkpatrick asked if there is anything that they aren’t seeing in the statements that have been shared.
- Rush suggested that a “definitions of terms” be included with the statements to try and make the reports a bit more accessible to people who are less familiar with accounting terms. Coffman said he’s trying to balance simple reporting with nuanced information. He’s also still working on the visual of the report.
- Shoffner pointed out that longitudinal data is really helpful to have to understand the context that we’re working in.
- Lindblom clarified that we can use information from the financial statements to understand what our members find helpful and what they want, so that we can shift our expenditures to better accommodate our membership. Lindblom suggested that it would be helpful for the reports to give the EC a sense of what some of the financial statements mean in terms of supporting membership.
- Perry mentioned that the ad-hoc committee called the Membership Support Committee, solicited information after the CEE conference about what the members need/want. Based on the results, Perry asked if CEE should be seen as more revenue-generating, rather than as a retreat, since so many people seem to find value in the conference. Some of the things that people mentioned wanting out of CEE were information about edTPA and writing SPA reports.
- Coffman said that we can make changes to our expenditures to better accommodate the needs and interests of members.
- Perry suggested that we might consider having a grant or under-writer for the conference to help us generate more income. Kirkpatrick clarified that there are procedures in place through NCTE to help connect CEE to interested sponsors. She said that a sponsor might not offer too much money to CEE because of the small scope of the conference. Lindblom said we would need to be careful to partner with sponsors.
who support our vision of an beliefs about teacher education.

- Kirkpatrick said that the more she knows from CEE and about teacher education, the more she can go to bat for teacher education in the legislature. Kirkpatrick is hoping to partner with CEE in the future to have clear messages to share about teacher education and the work of CEE members.
- Kirkpatrick clarified that contingency funds should be used for membership growth and innovation. She said that CEE should consider if their expenditures will add value to the organization or to membership, before using the funds. Kirkpatrick reminded the group about the low rates for rebranding and professional designers to rebrand the CEE website and logo, etc.
- Kirkpatrick said the movement on CAEP stalled a bit. NCTE needs a focus group to evaluate what the path forward should be. Kirkpatrick asked that CEE determine 3-4 volunteers willing to work on this task. Kirkpatrick has been talking with ILA and it sounds like they are leaving CAEP. One reason is because the standards revision process was very challenging and because their revised standards were not approved.

NCTE/CAEP SPA Update (Agenda Item VII.B)

- Blackburn and Suchor provided clarification about CEE’s relationship with CAEP and Paul Yoder’s role. Blackburn mentioned that, like ILA, CEE also needs to revise standards and we need to decide if we want to revise our standards to align with CAEP.
- Lindblom offered to facilitate a discussion between CEE and an alternative standards group he is working with in NY. Lindblom also expressed concerns about a complete break between CAEP and NCTE.
- Blackburn asked if NCTE is asking for more CEE representation on the standards-review committee. Suchor clarified that the CEE members on the committee to review the CAEP-NCTE relationship do not have to be EC members.
- Goering asked if the EC feels that members feel unsupported by CEE (on issues of CAEP). Perry clarified that the Member Support Committee didn’t solicit information about CAEP in particular, but instead general membership needs and interests. Lindblom said that he thought, overall, people feel very supported through the SPA process.
- The group discussed various ways to support CEE members through CAEP. The EC was concerned about giving too much work to Yoder and suggested that those EC members who have recently gone through CAEP could create and circulate a one-pager with recommendations and tips.

Blackburn recessed the meeting for a break from 10:40-11:00.

CEE Mentorship Program (Tom McCann & Chris Goering) (Agenda Item VII.C)

- McCann reported that the number of mentees and mentors had increased since 2016. McCann and Goering are beginning to create a “mentor toolbox” to share with mentee/mentor pairs.

L. Ramon Veal Seminar – Future and Leadership Change (Mollie V. Blackburn) (Agenda Item VII.D)

- Peter Smagorinsky, Cindy O’Donnell-Allen, and Michael Smith are stepping down from their work with the Veal Seminar.
- The EC discussed similarities across the 3 mentor programs: the CEE Mentorship Program, the Veal Seminar, and the CEE-GS roundtable session.
- The group seemed to agree that the CEE Mentorship Program was aimed at supporting mentees through their doctoral program and the job market, while the Veal seminar was aimed at helping mentees advance a particular research paper or project.
- DeStigter said that Veal had a more restricted timeframe, rather than a more long-term relationship like the CEE Mentorship Program. DeStigter asked if there is (or should be) any overlap between the Veal or CEE Mentorship Programs and the Cultivating New Voices mentorship program.
• Perry said that she has been talking with CNV and that they always have more applications than they can accept and that CEE could be an alternative for those applicants. Perry also mentioned that CNV is a very expensive program and time-intensive, so if CEE does decide to partner with CNV, it will demand more time and money.

• Dunn distinguished between Veal and the CEE-GS roundtable: in Veal, PhD students are partnered with a researcher of their choice and pairings are more long-term; whereas in the CEE-GS session, pairings are more randomized and short term. The Veal mentorship program also offers the opportunity to work with “big names” in the field, which would be challenging for the GS members to coordinate.

• Generally, the group agreed that each mentorship program was slightly different: with different aims, scopes, and timeframes. Suchor suggested that, with better communication, we could differentiate between the 3 to members.

• Thein recommended that we might change the names of the programs, to better reflect their goals.

• Blackburn recommended making this a continued discussion for a smaller group.

2017.4 To establish a Commission on Family and Community Literacies (Goering, Perry). CARRIED (Agenda Item VIII.A).

Blackburn recessed the meeting for lunch from 11:50-12:25.

Action Items were discussed.

What is English Language Arts Teacher Education? Position Statement Revision (Agenda Item VIII.B):

• Shoffner thanked the EC for their feedback on the June 2017 Position Statement.

• The group discussed providing guidelines to all CEE groups, so that all position statements shared similar elements.

2017.5 To adopt the Position Statement (Whitney, Johnson). CARRIED (Agenda Item VIII.B).

The remaining Action Items were discussed.

CEE Rebrand (Agenda Item VIII.C):

• Based on survey results, Shoffner and her committee suggested a name change from CEE to ELATE (ELA Teacher Educators).

• Johnson asked if the name change would affect the name of the English Education journal. Overall the group felt it wasn’t a necessity to change the name of the journal.

• Perry asked how much money it might cost to rebrand, based on a name change. Blackburn responded that to do a full rebrand would cost about $4,500 (coming from the contingency fund). Perry said this would be a good time to do an all-out rebranding if we’re going to spend money at this point.

• The EC agreed that the final decision to change the name needs to be put in front of the CEE membership. There was some discussion about how this would happen: via electronic ballot or in-person at NCTE 2018.

2017.6 To present the name change (from CEE to ELATE) to the general membership (Whitney, Perry). CARRIED (Agenda Item VIII.C).

New Business was discussed.

Policy Discussion (Agenda Item IX.A):

• The EC agreed that they want to engage in policy discussions and to take more action in policy issues.

Member Support Committee updates (Agenda Item IX.B):

• The EC discussed the importance of identifying potential members of CEE and helping them understand what CEE can do for them. In particular, the group identified English professors who teach Methods courses, clinical faculty, and retired teachers and faculty who work with pre-service teachers.

- Thein mentioned that funding might be a challenge for some of these groups (particularly clinical faculty) that might bar them from attending national conferences.
  Lindblom and Perry agreed that a webinar series might be more helpful for these groups.
- Shoffner said that the big issue seems to be that CEE doesn’t know who we are. We might need to be exclusionary and recognize that we are here to support people who call themselves teacher educators, we don’t need to support everybody who is teaching ELA.
- Lindblom suggested that CEE have a CEL liaison. The group questioned if this would affect CEE finances, if this person would be expected to attend EC meetings at conferences, and how to go about inviting a liaison. Ultimately, Blackburn offered to email the CEL Chair to open a discussion about potential collaborations and more open communication across the two groups.

| 2017.7 | Motion to create a CEL Liaison (Lindblom, Schaafsma). Motion Withdrawn (Lindblom). |
|        | Blackburn recessed the group for a break from 1:44-2:00. |

CEE Rebranding (Agenda Item IX.C):

- The group agreed that this would be a good time to pursue rebranding CEE, alongside the name change.
- Whitney clarified that she would prefer that we ask our membership about changing the name of ELATE before we move forward with actually changing the name or rebranding.

| 2017.8 | CEE/ELATE should move forward with rebranding on a timeline concomitant with renaming (Rush, McCann). CARRIED (Agenda Item IX.C) |

YA Summit Request (Agenda Item IX.D):

- The EC read Bickmore’s request for funding for the YA Summit at UNLV.
- The EC questioned if they had agreed to sponsor the event. Blackburn confirmed that “no” the EC had not formally agreed to be a sponsor.
- Blackburn was concerned with allocating funds for this event because we have a lot of commissions and this could set a challenging precedent to uphold.
- Thein suggested starting some kind of commission grant that is competitive and that we could advertise. Whitney suggested that we add a section to the bylaws about who can ask for money and for what reason.
- Blackburn also said that the money to give to Bickmore (or other, similar requests) would have to come out of the contingency funds, which doesn’t seem to be what that money is for.
- Lindblom suggested that we adopt a policy that we don’t fund budget requests.
- Perry suggested that we make $1000 available in $500 increments. People can apply for funding from CEE, rather than having no funds available. Goering said he likes the idea of wrapping this initiative into our rebranding.
- Whitney summarized: we deny Bickmore’s funding request and also note that CEE did not confirm sponsorship of the event, we have no funding for such requests, this request was not in our approved budget, and this wasn’t on the agenda for this meeting.
- Sealey-Ruiz suggested that we put a limited time-frame on such a fund for Commissions. For instance, we could align the funding with the rebranding for 2 years and then it’s done. Blackburn agreed that this would be an excellent topic for a potential committee to discuss.
Appointments/Elections (Agenda Item IX.E):
- Election: CEE Vice Chair, 2017-2021
  - The group voted via private ballot.
  - Goering was voted on unanimously as CEE Vice Chair.
- CEE Commission Liaisons, 2017-2018
  - DeStigter volunteered to serve as the liaison for the Commission on Family and Community Literacies.
- CEE Award Committees, 2017-2018
  - Blackburn clarified the procedures for these committees.

Announcements from the Chair (Agenda Item IX.F):
- NCTE 2017 CEE Program Events (Luncheon, Awards Sessions, Membership Meeting)
- IFTE Conference, June 2018
  - The next IFTE conference will be a joint event with CEE/NCTE on June 21-24, 2018 in Birmingham.

Houston, TX, 2018 (Agenda Item IX.G):
- Proposal Reviewers—CEE EC
  - The EC will review CEE-related NCTE proposals in January/February. Goering and Lindblom will represent CEE in February to work on the overall NCTE proposal.
- Program Chair for Houston, 2018
- Program Events & Issues
- Luncheon Speakers List:
  - Recommendations will go to Suchor, who will reach out and schedule the speaker.
  - Sariganides recommended Jesmyn Ward or the New York Times author who wrote about school segregation. Ashley Hope Perez (Out of Darkness) could also be a good option.
- General Membership Meeting/Social Hour Program

Announcements (Agenda Item X)

Thanks to outgoing CEE EC members (Mollie V. Blackburn) (Agenda Item X.A):
- Blackburn thanked Carmen Kynard, Tom McCann, and Melanie Shoffner for their work on the EC.

During the meeting, we determined that the following tasks should be addressed:
- CAEP: 3-4 CEE members to represent CEE at CAEP discussions. Blackburn asked for recommendations. Goering recommended Donna Whit at the University of Arkansas, Sealey-Ruiz recommended Adelle Bruni-Ashley from TC, and Paul Yoder.
- Put together a one-pager about SPA reports: Lindblom and Rush volunteered
- Policy efforts: Lindblom and Mirra volunteered.
- Distinguishing between the mentorship efforts: Sealey-Ruiz, DeStigter, Perry, Goering, Thein, Shoffner, and Dunn volunteered.
- Next steps on the position statement and how that might affect other CEE groups and documents: No volunteers
- Membership Support Group: Perry, Lindblom, Barnes, Mirra, Sealey-Ruiz, and Schaafsma volunteered.

III. Conflict of Interest Disclaimer (If any EC members need to update their 2016-17 form, please see Kristen at the meeting.)

IV. Approval of the Minutes, November 2016

V. Acceptance of the Consent Agenda Reports

CONSENT AGENDA: Organizations having a large number of routine matters to approve often save time by use of a consent agenda. This is a portion of the printed agenda listing matters that are expected to be non-controversial and on which there are likely to be no questions.

Before taking the vote, the chair allows time for the members to read the list to determine if it includes any matters on which they may have a question, or which they would like to discuss or oppose. Any member has a right to remove any item from the consent agenda, in which case it is transferred to the regular agenda so that it may be considered and voted on separately. The remaining items are then unanimously approved en bloc without discussion, saving the time that would be required for individual votes.

- Commission on Writing Teacher Education (Whitney)
- Commission on New Literacies, Technology, and Teacher Education (Hicks)
- Commission on the Teaching of Poetry (Petrone)

The CEE Financial Report was given by Suchor, and included both the FY17 and FY18 budgets (Agenda item VII.A).

- FY17 Budget:
  - Suchor reported that there’s room for growth in terms of increasing membership as long as finances are kept down. The FY17 report doesn’t include the expenses for the CEE conference. The expenses and the income from CEE will be reflected in later reports.
  - There was some discussion about encouraging more people to attend the CEE conference. Suchor suggested that in the future CEE should present the conference as more of a retreat-like atmosphere than a formal conference. There was also some discussion about shortening the length of the conference and/or adding a Writing Retreat component to the conference.
  - Suchor reported that there are a number of subscribers to English Education who are not members of CEE. There are probably a number of people who think they’re CEE members, but their NCTE memberships had lapsed.
  - CEE membership has recently decreased and NCTE has some initiatives to help with that.

- FY18 Budget:
  - A committee has been organized within NCTE to investigate whether or not NCTE should maintain its relationship with CAEP moving forward and also to revise the 2012 Standards. There was some discussion about CEE representation in this committee and how the NCTE-CAEP relationship affects some institutions differently than others. Linblom, Perry, and Johnson expressed interested in serving on the committee.
  - Suchor reported that there is money in the budget for an in-person meeting to revise the 2012 Standards, but that other, more cost-effective meeting methods should be considered as well.
  - Concerns regarding the sustainability of CEE as membership numbers decline were expressed. Suchor reported that NCTE is currently invested in a robust renewal program by focusing on member experiences and rebranding.
  - A number of strategies for increasing membership were discussed.

2017:4 To accept the FY18 Budget. (McCann, Johnson) CARRIED (Agenda Item VII) D

Blackburn recessed the meeting for lunch 11:45-1:15.
More reports were given.

- The 2017 CEE Summer Conference Update was given by Blackburn. Blackburn discussed the conference schedule and format, encourage EC members to attend sessions, commission meetings, and discussion groups, and thanked EC members and Suchor for their work planning and preparing for the conference (Agenda item VII.B).
- A report was not received for the NCTE/CAEP SPA Update. There was discussion about the NCTE-CAEP relationship and the amount of influence that NCTE has with CAEP as well as other organizations’ (like ILA and MLA) relationships with CAEP (Agenda item VII.C).
- The NCTE Executive Director report was given by Kirkpatrick. There was discussion about membership trends in NCTE and CEE. NCTE’s website has been overhauled and will deploy in June. There are options for CEE to rebrand their image as well. There was discussion about a potential name change for CEE (Agenda item VII.D).
- Petrone reported for the Renaming Committee. Petrone reported survey results that indicated that members felt there was a disconnect between the name of CEE and the membership and aims of CEE. The group discussed names that would clarify that teacher educators in general and elementary grades teacher educators are included in CEE. Lindblom recommended that we charge a committee with exploring the name of CEE and that CEE be one of the names they consider (Agenda item VII.E).
- Schaafsma gave the report for the Position Statement Committee. This committee was charged with re-describing the CEE group (Agenda item VII.F).

Blackburn recessed the group from 3:00-3:10 to read the revised Position Statement draft.

The remaining reports were given.

- The group discussed the Position Statement draft. Overall the group liked the statement and asked for electronic copies so they could review more closely and send feedback to the committee. Blackburn will check with the committee to get a date for feedback from the EC (Agenda item VII.F).
- Perry reported for the Member Support Committee. The committee proposed developing a webinar series on various topics of interest to CEE members and also inviting CNV applicants into the CEE mentorship program. The committee was tasked with developing their first webinar in the next 6 months (Agenda item VII.G).
- The English Education report was given by Johnson. Johnson is considering various ways to celebrate the upcoming 50th anniversary of the journal. Nicole Mirra reported for CITE and discussed various ways she is trying to encourage more people to submit to the journal (Agenda item VII.H).
- Blackburn reported about CEE Events at NCTE 2017, St. Louis. The CEE EC meeting will be held Thursday prior to NCTE, with the EC dinner that evening. Blackburn reviewed the schedule for other CEE-related events at NCTE (Agenda item VII.I).

Blackburn asked the group to begin thinking about who they would like to nominate and/or elect as the Vice Chair. The Vice Chair election will take place at NCTE in November 2017 (Action item VIII.A).

Blackburn asked if there were any other announcements to be made (Action item IX).

SECTION 8: Awards

ELATE James N. Britton Award for Inquiry Within the English Language Arts

Purpose: To encourage English Language Arts teacher development, consistent with the major goal of ELATE, by promoting classroom-based research in which teachers at any educational level raise questions about teaching and learning in their own teaching/learning settings.

“It is the continual reformulation of what we know in the light of what we perceive that matters: and the hardening of what we know into a formula that we apply ready-made instead of reformulating - that is the danger. Thus, our most powerful ideas are relatively general, relatively unformulated starting points from which we constantly reformulate......Research findings are things we can know which could have bearing on what we do when we teach. And ‘development’ should be the name of the process of bringing this kind of knowing into relationship with this kind of doing.” p. 150—James N. Britton, A Note on Teaching, Research and ‘Development’ in Prospect and Retrospect: Selected Essays of James Britton. Edited by G.M. Pradl, Boyton/Cook, 1982.

Nature of the Award:
A specially designed certificate for a maximum of three winners annually and a ticket to be a guest at the ELATE Luncheon.

Criteria for the Award:
1. Nominated work should represent classroom based research conducted by an English Language Arts teacher at any level—preschool through University.
2. Focused on a systemic study of any aspect of the inquirer’s own teaching, including collaborative research with other practitioners.
3. Published in any format/modality, including books, articles, and digital illustrations of model practices in the field, during the two-year time period under consideration.
Procedures:
1. Establish a three-member committee—appointed by the ELATE chair.
2. The chair of the Award Committee will establish procedures for obtaining nominations and for selecting the finalist, in consultation with the committee. The recipient will be announced at the ELATE luncheon during the Annual Convention.
3. Nominations may be made by any Language Arts educator or by self-nomination.
4. Announcements of the procedures and of the recipients will be placed in English Education as well as other NCTE publications and notices will be sent to all affiliate publications and other relevant publications.

The first award was presented Spring 1990.
Beginning with the 2004 award, nominations must be received by May 1. Winners will be announced by July 1 and the award will be presented at the ELATE luncheon during the NCTE Annual Convention in November.

Beginning in 2014 Britton is awarded only in odd numbered years if nominations warrant presentation.

ELATE National Technology Leadership Award

Each year, the English Language Arts Teacher Educators (ELATE) identifies a recipient of the ELATE National Technology Leadership Award. The award provides an opportunity to present at the annual Society for Information Technology in Teacher Education (SITE) international conference. All NCTE members, especially ELATE members, are encouraged to nominate themselves or a colleague whose accepted NCTE Annual Convention proposal demonstrates cutting-edge and generative methods of integrating newer technologies into teacher education courses or workshops. In addition to teacher education faculty and graduate students, Pre-K - 12 teachers may also be nominated.

Although all nominations will be considered, members of the ELATE Commission on New Literacies, Technologies, and Teacher Education, who judge for the award, are particularly interested in identifying outstanding work in teacher education courses or professional development programs. Commission members look for presentations that

- Focus on theoretically sound and research-based methods of teaching the English language arts/literacy in which the technology is a secondary rather than primary focus;
- Use technology to create beneficial opportunities for English language arts/literacy learning that could not exist without the technology;
- Improve students’ mastery of English language arts/literacy learning;
- Use technology to address challenges faced by many English language arts/literacy teachers and/or students or the broader community; or
- Introduce new methods for teaching the English language arts/literacy with the use of newer technologies in ways that show promise of working well in widely divergent educational settings.

Nominations must be e-mailed to the co-chair of the ELATE Commission on New Literacies, Technologies, and Teacher Education Committee by August 15. Each nomination must include the following:

1. Presenter’s name and contact information (home and school addresses and phone numbers),
2. Session title and description (and, if possible, the session number, day and time),
3. A copy of the session proposal, and
4. A detailed statement explaining how the presentation illustrates the characteristics the award is intended to identify (see above bullet points)

ELATE Research Initiative Grants

Purpose
To support research projects that advance the work of the organization as articulated through our various position statements and sponsored publications (see www.ncte.org/cee). The research supported by this initiative should contribute to and extend ELATE's efforts to communicate what we know and believe about English education with many different audiences: state and federal policy makers, accreditation agencies, school/department administrators, researchers, teacher educators, practicing teachers and other education leaders.

Nature of the Award
A specifically designed certificate will be given to the winners at the ELATE Business Meeting/Social at the NCTE Annual Convention. Maximum number of grants to be awarded annually is determined prior to budget approval and distribution of the call for proposals. Decision is based on a percentage of investment returns within the ELATE contingency reserve fund.

Criteria for the Award
Proposals should include the following:

- Cover page that provides the following:
  - title of the proposal
  - names of the investigator(s)
  - full contact information of the investigator(s): institution, address, phone, email
  - designation of a principal contact if multiple investigators are involved
  - proposal abstract (75 words maximum)
- Narrative (1250 words maximum) clearly explaining the following:
  - aims of the research
  - question(s) to be addressed
  - key related work in the research literature
  - data to be gathered
  - methods for its collection and analysis
  - importance of the question(s) for ELATE
  - potential implications beyond ELATE
- Outline of the work timeline, noting key events and processes
- Detailed budget with rationale for all expenses
  - Note: The grant must be used to fund direct costs for specific research activities only. Funds may not be used to pay any indirect costs and/or overhead. The investigator(s) may determine whether funds are disbursed to the university or directly to the Principal Investigator (PI).
- CV (2 pages maximum) for all investigators

Procedures

English Education

THE OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS TEACHER EDUCATORS OF THE NATIONAL COUNCIL OF TEACHERS OF ENGLISH

The English Language Arts Teacher Educators (ELATE) is an organization concerned with the process of educating teachers of English and language arts. That education involves both the preservice and the inservice development of teachers. Recognizing the reciprocity of teaching and learning, the ELATE addresses pertinent theory and research as they inform curriculum, methodology, and certification. Included in the constituency of the ELATE are college and university teacher-educators; inservice leaders and consultants; supervisors at local, district, regional, and state levels; mentor teachers; teacher consultants curriculum coordinators and developers; teacher-researchers; and classroom teachers who work with student teachers.

Published Quarterly, English Education contains articles that focus on issues related to the nature of the discipline, especially as it spans all levels of instruction, and the education and development of teachers of English at all levels.

CITE: English

CITe: Contemporary Issues in Technology and Teacher Education (CITE) Journal is an online peer-reviewed journal examining the meaningful intersections between technology and teacher education. The journal has multiple sections, each focused on a specific area of interest: English Language Arts, Mathematics, Science, Social Studies, General and Current Practice. The English Language Arts section is supported by the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE) and the English Language Arts Teacher Educators (ELATE).

CITE: English provides a space to consider the issues found in the intersections of English education and technology. The online format of CITE: English encourages authors to incorporate web links, streaming video, sound files and other interactive technology into their writing.

CITE Journal is now accepting submissions addressing current issues in English teacher education, the English Language Arts and technology are always welcome, particularly those that integrate theory, research and practice. All submissions are peer reviewed.

Authors may submit manuscripts online at http://www.citejournal.org.

Smagorinsky and Whiting examine how college professors across the country teach undergraduate secondary methods courses. The book explores several issues relevant to the teaching of methods courses: the five general approaches that structure the experiences of preservice teachers; the range of activities and assessments that students are involved in; and the major theoretical positions articulated through the course readings.

I. NAME
The name of this association shall be the National Council of Teachers of English, hereinafter sometimes referred to as “the Association,” “the Corporation,” or “the Council.”

II. LOCATION
Its location shall be in Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri, but it may locate its office or offices as the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee may from time to time establish.

III. OBJECT
The purpose of this Association is to improve the quality of instruction in English at all educational levels; to encourage research, experimentation, and investigation in the teaching of English; to facilitate professional cooperation of the members; to hold public discussions and programs; to sponsor the publication of desirable articles and reports; and to integrate the efforts of all those who are concerned with the improvement of instruction in English.

IV. MEMBERSHIP
The Council offers three types of membership: individual voting membership, emeritus voting membership, and student nonvoting membership. Individual voting membership in one Section of the Council shall be available to all persons engaged in the teaching or supervision of English at any school level and to all others interested in the improvement of such teaching.

V. AFFILIATED ASSOCIATIONS
A. Basic Qualifications
   1. Bona fide associations of teachers of English having twenty-five or more members, including English sections of city, state, or regional teachers’ associations and student groups consisting of ten or more nonvoting members of the Council and organized under faculty sponsorship, may become affiliates of the Council. Every affiliate of the Council shall appoint or elect a liaison officer for the purpose of interpreting the affiliate to the Council and the Council to the affiliate.

   2. The Council recognizes the desirability of organizing affiliates at local, regional, state, or interstate levels, but normally not more than one affiliate shall be accepted into the Council from any one of these levels in any single geographic area except for justifiable reasons. Whenever applications for affiliation are received from a new association in a locality, a region, or a state in which another affiliate at the same level is already operating, the Executive Committee shall not take action on the application until at least thirty days after the application is announced in a regular communication sent by the Council to affiliates. The Council shall encourage local, regional, and state groups to affiliate with the next higher unit as well as with the Council.

B. Affiliation Fees
Affiliates shall pay annual affiliation fees, the amount of which shall be fixed by the bylaws.

C. Criteria for Affiliation
Affiliates of the Council or groups of English teachers applying for affiliation with the Council shall meet the following standards:
1. All members of the governing board either of the affiliate or the group applying for affiliation shall be members of the National Council.

2. The affiliate or the group applying for affiliation shall have a functionally written constitution which shall provide for continuity of personnel within the administration of the group (e.g., by providing either for overlapping terms for members, for rotation of officers, or for an executive officer, etc.). A copy of this constitution shall be filed in the executive office of the Council with an indication of the stated provision.

3. An affiliate or a group applying for affiliation with the National Council shall establish at least one general meeting a year for its total membership, of which a part shall be devoted to the business of the affiliate, and at least one other additional meeting a year of its governing body.

4. Each affiliate or group applying for affiliation with the Council shall designate that its secretary and/or liaison officer submit reports at least annually to the Council, and that these reports shall include:
   a. a statement of the membership of the affiliate;
   b. a generalized report of an annual meeting;
   c. the results of the election of officers;
   d. a summary of projects undertaken or contemplated;
   e. notice of special situations and problems as they arise in the area served by the affiliate; and
   f. notice of special needs of the affiliate or its committees.

5. Each affiliate or group applying for affiliation with the Council shall maintain some effective means of disseminating information among its members.

D. Representation at Council Meetings

1. With the exception of directors representing junior affiliates, the certified member of the Board of Directors of the Council from an affiliate or an alternate shall attend the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Council at least once in every three years or the affiliate shall be suspended.

2. The Executive Director of the National Council shall send the certified Director representing an affiliate a formal acknowledgment of certification, including an appropriate certificate; material concerning the functions, organization, and purposes of the National Council; material concerning current issues and problems to be brought to the attention of the Board of Directors of the Council sufficiently in advance of the annual meeting that the Director may confer with the affiliate or its officers and directors so as to receive instructions regarding the attitudes of the affiliate relative to current issues and problems.

3. Certified members of the Board of Directors shall report to the members of their affiliates the actions of the Board of Directors of the National Council.

E. Responsibilities of the National Council

1. The Executive Director of the National Council, assisted by other staff members, shall work to increase the services to affiliates performed by the Council and especially shall assume responsibility for the following functions:
   a. screening the applications of new affiliates;
b. keeping records of the activities of the affiliates;

c. preparing to visit affiliates for the purpose of appraisal and counsel to the greatest extent possible;

e. helping to create a desirable uniformity in the functions and purposes of affiliates;

f. planning and initiating an organization of regional areas of the National Council; and

g. promoting positive and continuing programs of action among affiliates based upon the recommendations and policies of the National Council.

2. A publication of the National Council shall be issued regularly and frequently to all officers and directors of the National Council and to all officers and directors of affiliates.

VI. OFFICERS AND MANAGEMENT

A. Board of Directors

1. Authority. The Board of Directors and other Council members present at the Annual Business Meeting shall approve or disapprove official position statements on educational issues, such position statements being subject to ratification by the membership. [see Article XI.C., Annual Business Meeting] A second, separate procedure for adopting position statements may originate with the Executive Committee. An official position statement may also be adopted 1) when the Executive Committee submits it on a ballot to the entire membership and it is approved by a majority of those responding within 30 days, or 2) when two-thirds of the members of the Executive Committee have voted to approve it. The Board of Directors and other Council members present at the Annual Business Meeting shall have the further responsibility to recommend new Council programs and to advise the Executive Committee on its direction of Council operations. The Board shall receive annually reports on headquarters operations and on the activities of the Executive Committee and of all other duly constituted Council bodies.

2. Election. The Directors shall be chosen in the following manner:

a. Each local, state, or regional association affiliated with the Council and with dues fully paid shall be entitled to select one or more of its members who are also members of the National Council to serve as Directors of the Council. Any Director chosen to represent an affiliate shall be familiar with the affairs of the affiliate. All affiliates shall be entitled to name one member of the Board of Directors. Affiliates which have between 150–349 members who are also members of NCTE shall be entitled to name two members of the Board of Directors; affiliates with 350–549 such members, three directors; with 550–749, four directors; and so on, up to a maximum of six directors. Affiliates which name more than one member to the Board of Directors shall name their liaison officer as one member of the Board of Directors. Each junior affiliate shall be entitled to designate one faculty sponsor as a member of the Board of Directors. Such Directors shall serve from the opening of one annual meeting to the opening of the next annual meeting, unless in the meantime the affiliation of their association with the Council has lapsed.

b. Members of the Section Committees (see Article VII, Section B) shall serve as members of the Board of Directors, representing their respective Sections.
c. Council officers, representatives at large, officers of conferences, directors of commissions, chairs of Council committees, and editors of Council periodicals shall be ex officio voting members of the Board of Directors.

d. Former past presidents of the Council shall be voting members ex officio of the Board of Directors.

All Assemblies shall be entitled to name one member to the Board of Directors. Assemblies which have between 150–349 members who are also members of NCTE shall be entitled to name two members to the Board of Directors; assemblies with 350–549 such members, three directors; with 550–749, four directors, and so on, up to a maximum of six directors.

3. Alternates. In case a Director appointed regularly by an affiliate is unable to attend an annual meeting, an alternate may be sent provided that the alternate presents the proper credentials and fulfills all other requirements for a fully accredited Director from the affiliate group. The alternate does not, however, take over the unexpired term of office of the regularly constituted Director unless specifically selected to do so by regular constitutional process.

B. Election of Officers, Representatives at Large, and Other Officials

1. Officers. The members of the Council shall elect annually from the membership of the Council a vice president, who shall serve in the following year as president-elect, in the next year as president, and during the fourth year as past president.

2. Representatives at Large. The members of the Council shall elect from the membership of the Council three representatives at large to the Executive Committee, one each from the elementary, middle, and secondary teaching levels. All shall be classroom teachers at their respective levels at the time of nomination. All shall serve two-year terms.

3. Nominating Committee. A Nominating Committee of seven members, five elected by ballot and two appointed by the Officers, shall propose candidates for an election conducted during April and May. Candidates for election to the Nominating Committee shall be grouped by geographical region and by voting section (elementary, middle, secondary, college), with the voting sections rotating annually among the regions. The elected candidate receiving the greatest number of votes shall chair the Nominating Committee. No member elected to the Nominating Committee for two consecutive years shall be eligible for reelection until two years have passed. The chair of the Nominating Committee in any one year will serve as consultant to the Nominating Committee elected the following year.

4. Election Procedures and Calendar. The procedures and calendar for nomination and election shall be as follows:

a. Nominations. The Nominating Committee shall send to the Executive Director not later than December 15 the following slate of candidates: two candidates for vice president, two candidates for representative at large, two candidates for each vacancy on the Board of Trustees of the Research Foundation, and fifteen candidates for the five places on the Nominating Committee during the following year. Should an unexpected vacancy call for a special election (see Article VI, Section B, Part 5), the Nominating Committee shall prepare slates as requested by the Executive Committee. The Nominating Committee shall serve from September 1 following its formation through August 31 of the next year.

b. Publication of the Slate. The Executive Director shall send an announcement of the slate of candidates to the membership during the February preceding the next election.

c. Petitions. Additional names for trustees of the Research Foundation, representatives at large, and members of the next Nominating Committee may be added to the ballot by a petition signed by fifty members of the Council provided that the petition reaches the Executive Director of the Council not later than January 10, that it is accompanied by the written consent of the person nominated, that the person nominated be a member of the Council, that in the case of the representative at large the person nominated be a classroom teacher from the appropriate level, and that in the case of the Nominating Committee the person is from the appropriate level (elementary, middle, secondary, or college) for that particular region during the year in question. A separate petition shall be required for each nomination by petition.

d. Balloting. Ballots shall be sent to members of the Council on or about April 15. The deadline for returning ballots shall be June 1. In each case, the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes shall be elected.

e. Announcement of Results. Immediately after the balloting has closed and the results are known, the Executive Director shall notify all candidates. Included in the first fall mailing to the membership at large shall be a report of the results.

5. Continuity of Officers. If the office of the president is vacated, for whatever reason, the president-elect shall serve also as president pro tem. In that event, the Executive Committee shall appoint a member of the Council to perform the duties of the president-elect until the end of the next annual meeting. If the office of either president-elect or vice president is vacated, the Executive Committee shall follow the same procedure of appointing a member of the Council to carry out the duties of that office until the end of the next annual meeting. If the office of the past president is vacated, the quorum specified in Article VI, Section C, Part 1, shall be reduced by one.

For such vacancies, among the office of president, president-elect, or vice president, the Nominating Committee shall submit within two months of the vacancy a slate of two candidates for a special election by the membership. The individual so elected shall assume office at the next annual meeting. Those appointed by the Executive Committee to fill the offices until that annual meeting shall not continue in succession of offices unless their names are included in the slate submitted by the Nominating Committee and they are elected by the membership. A president-elect who serves as president pro tem through the annual meeting shall succeed to the presidency, and the retiring past president shall be invited to serve an additional year on the Executive Committee. Should that person decline, the post of past president shall be left vacant and the quorum specified in Article VI, Section C, Part 1 shall be reduced by one. Should the successful candidate for vice president withdraw after the election but before assuming the duties of that office, the candidate on the same slate shall assume the duties. Should that candidate decline to serve or be unable to serve, the Executive Committee shall fill the post by one-year appointment as stipulated above.

C. Executive Committee

1. Membership and Quorum. The officers of the Council (the president, the president-elect, the vice president, and the past president), the chairs and associate chairs of the Sections, the representatives at large, the chair of TYCA, and the chairs of the NCTE conferences (CCCC, ELATE, CEL, and WLU), shall constitute the Executive Committee, which shall be responsible for approving official NCTE policies, i.e., decisions concerning internal Council operations and structure. A simple majority of the total number of voting members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum.

2. Duties. The Executive Committee shall take actions on position statements on educational issues approved by the Board of Directors or by the entire membership in ballots, exercising budgetary responsibility in implementing such actions. Subject to the limitations imposed by Article XI, Section A, the Executive Committee shall have the authority to approve budgets, to review annual audits, to enter into contracts, to incur debts, to invest funds, and to sell and acquire property in the best interests of the Council. Such activities shall be reported annually to the Board of Directors.

3. Eligibility. Although not barred from candidacy for election to the Executive Committee, editors of Council journals, directors of commissions, and trustees of the Research Foundation shall resign from those positions if they are elected to the Executive Committee.

4. Electronic Meetings. Any meeting of the Executive Committee may be conducted by electronic means such as conference telephone call, webinar, or similar electronic communication, so long as all persons participating are able to remain in communications contact with one another at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute an individual's presence in person at the meeting. Provided that a quorum exists, decisions taken by vote during electronic meetings shall be deemed binding, in the same manner that decisions taken by vote during live meetings are.

VII. SECTIONS

A. Membership

Individual voting members of the National Council of Teachers of English select the Section in which they wish voting membership: Elementary Section, Middle Level Section, Secondary Section, or College Section. All individual voting members receive a subscription to The Council Chronicle.

B. Governance of Sections

1. Section Committees. Each Section shall have a steering committee known as the Section Committee, with eight elected members and with the officers of the Council serving as ex officio members of their respective Section Committees. In addition, when the voting membership of a Section exceeds 10,000, the Section Committee shall be increased by one member for each additional 5,000 voting members. Section Committee members shall usually serve for four-year terms and shall take office at the close of the November meeting following their election.

   Each Section Committee shall have a chair whom the membership of the Committee shall choose from among those Section Committee members who have one or more years to serve. The term of the chair shall be two years.

   In addition, when the voting membership of a Section exceeds 15,000, the Section Committee shall elect from its membership an associate chair. For each further increase of 15,000 voting members in a Section, the Section shall elect an additional associate chair. The term of office for an associate chair shall normally be two years, and the election for this office shall normally be in alternate years from the election of the Section chair. When a Section Committee member who has only one year remaining on the Section Committee is elected as Section chair or associate chair, that member will serve an additional year on the committee in order to complete the two-year term as chair or associate chair. An associate chair with one or more years left to serve on the Section Committee at the time of the election of the next chair shall be eligible to serve as chair. If the Section Committee chooses an associate chair to serve as chair, they shall also select another member of the Section Committee to fill the unexpired term of the associate chair.

2. Section Nominating Committees. Each Section shall have a nominating committee of three members, elected by ballot of the membership of the Section. The candidate receiving the greatest number of votes shall chair the committee. The Section Nominating Committee shall be chosen from a slate of six candidates prepared by the Section Nominating Committee in the preceding year.

   Except under one circumstance, the Section Nominating Committee shall send to the Executive Director by December 15 a slate of four candidates, two to be elected to the Section Committee; and six additional candidates, three to be elected to constitute the next Section Nominating Committee. The exception occurs when Sections reach 15,000 voting members and thus have more than eight elected members on the Section Committee, in years when more than two vacancies are to be filled, the Section Nominating Committee shall submit a slate of twice the number of candidates needed to fill all vacancies.

3. Petitions. Slates submitted on December 15 shall appear in the Section journals in March. Additional nominations either for the Section Committee or for the Section Nominating Committee may be added to the ballot by a petition signed by fifty members of the Section provided that the petition be accompanied by a statement of written consent from the persons nominated, that the candidates be members of the Section in question, and that the petition reach the Executive Director of the Council not later than January 10.

4. Calendar of Events. Ballots shall be sent to members of the Sections on or about April 15. The deadline for returning ballots shall be June 1. All candidates shall be notified immediately of the results. A general announcement to the membership shall be included in the first fall mailing to the membership.

VIII. COMMITTEES OF THE COUNCIL

In addition to the committees authorized in Article VI, B3 and C (Nominating Committee and Executive Committee) and Article VII (Section nominating committees and Section steering committees), and to affiliates (Article V), the Council recognizes the following constituent groups:

A. Committees

1. General committees appointed by the Executive Committee as standing committees or as short-term committees to carry on activities at one or more levels of instruction. Such committees shall report at designated times to the Executive Committee and Board of Directors of the Council.

2. Intra-Sectional committees appointed by the Section Committees to carry on Sectional duties. Such committees must be approved by the Executive Committee of the Council.

3. Intra-commission committees (see “Commissions” below) chosen by the commission to carry on commission activities.
B. Commissions

Commissions are authorized by the Executive Committee of the Council to carry out specific large-scale projects or studies. The director of a commission shall be appointed by the Executive Committee of the Council and members approved by the Executive Committee. A commission when authorized shall have responsibility for establishing its procedures and activities, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee of the Council. A commission shall issue progress reports and terminal reports to the Executive Committee and Board of Directors of the Council at times designated by the Executive Committee.

C. Conferences

Conferences are authorized by the Executive Committee of the Council for specific or indefinite terms with the principal responsibility for holding meetings for exchange of views on specific professional topics. The chair and other officers may be appointed by the Executive Committee of the Council or elected by the membership of the conference, as the Executive Committee of the Council authorizes when the conference is established. A conference when authorized shall have the responsibility for planning its meetings and interim activities, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee of the Council. If the Executive Committee of the Council so requests, a conference shall issue progress reports at times designated by the Executive Committee of the Council.

Approval of application for the authorization of new conferences shall be subject to minimum requirements for membership and for annual income, such requirements to be set by the Executive Committee of the Council. All individual voting members of a conference shall also be members of the Council.

E. Assemblies

Assemblies are authorized by the Executive Committee to serve the interests and purposes of persons who share special interests or who have jobs alike. To be authorized, an assembly must maintain a minimum membership of twenty-five, and all officers and other members of its governing board must be members of the Council. An assembly shall pay to the Council annual dues which shall be keyed to the size of assembly membership and shall follow the same schedule as dues for NCTE affiliates as stated in Bylaw 2. An assembly may set whatever individual dues its membership authorizes.

5. Except for the payment of reasonable compensation for services actually rendered to or for the Foundation, none of the funds or earnings of the Foundation shall inure to the financial benefit of any Trustee or of any other private person or party, but shall be used solely and exclusively for the objects and purposes of the Foundation and the Council.

Donors or grantors may specify the uses of their gifts if those uses fall within the purpose of the Foundation. The Trustees shall be empowered to accept or decline any proffered gifts.

X. OTHER GROUPS WITHIN THE COUNCIL

The NCTE Executive Committee may establish other kinds of groups within the Council (e.g., consortia and associations) to meet the emerging needs of its members. The Executive Committee will review such groups every three years to determine whether they are continuing to meet the needs earlier identified and if they are fulfilling their membership projections and fiscal goals.
