

Literacies for All Summer Institute

July 12-14, 2018 • Baltimore, Maryland

Sustaining Joy in Our Learning Communities during Challenging Times

This year's NCTE Summer Institute invites us to give voice to the languages, literacies, and diverse cultures of students in our classrooms and among ourselves as professionals, and to focus on the joy we find in this important work. As an international organization with a lengthy history of progressive education, democratic schools, and critical literacy, our creative work involves constantly affirming the potential of whole language learning communities to examine the world we live in through multiple languages and literacies.

WHAT CAN I EXPECT?

Keynote Speakers:

- Jonathan Bean, Children's Illustrator
- Jitu Brown, National Director, Journey for Justice Alliance
- Mary Lee Hahn and Frank Sibberson, Dublin City Schools, Ohio
- David Wiesner, Children's Author and Illustrator

And more than 50 roundtables, discussions and panel presentations.

Topics Include:

Literacy and Literature • Language and Culture • Digital and Visual Literacies • Reading and Miscue Analysis • Multiple Languages and Literacies • Literacy and Social/Political Action • Community Literacies • Collaborative Projects • Early Childhood

PRECONFERENCE WORKSHOP: Thursday, July 12 • 11:45 a.m. -- 5:00 p.m. $75 (includes lunch)

The Preconference Workshop for the 2018 Literacies for All Summer Institute continues the tradition of focusing on educational activism. This summer, diverse local and national activists will join us in addressing our theme "Organizing for Racial & Social Justice in Schools and Communities." Jitu Brown, National Director of Journey 4 Justice Alliance and the "We Choose Campaign," will be the inspirational keynote speaker. Meet and learn in workshops with leaders of Journey for Justice, Advancement Project, United We Dream, Racial Justice Now, Leaders of a Beautiful Struggle, and others. Topics of interactive sessions include union activism, safe schools for "dreamers," restorative justice, the school-to-prison pipeline, and much more.

All Summer Institute activities will take place at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.
