

LITERACIES FOR ALL SUMMER INSTITUTE

JULY 12-13, 2019 • COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

EMBRACING DIVERSITY THROUGH MEANINGFUL INQUIRY

---

CALL FOR PROPOSALS: DEADLINE JANUARY 25, 2019

HTTP://WWW2.NCTE.ORG/GROUPS/WLU/INSTITUTE

---

Our theme highlights three important ideas: diversity, inquiry, and learning. Each idea has particular significance when we consider the historical and current state of literacy education. Join us in the exploration of literacy teaching and learning as we reaffirm what we know and explore new possibilities.

ALL SUMMER INSTITUTE ACTIVITIES WILL TAKE PLACE AT THE EMBASSY SUITES BY HILTON COLUMBIA GREYSTONE

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

- Catherine Compton-Lilly, author and professor, University of South Carolina, Columbia
- Valerie Kinloch, author and professor, University of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
- Lester Laminack, author and professor emeritus, Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, North Carolina
- Julian Vasquez Heilig, California State University, Sacramento

REGISTRATION RATES

WLU/NCTE Member $225
NCTE Member Only $250
Nonmember $300
Student Member $100

Classroom teacher discount:
$45 off registration fees

TOPICS

- Literacy and Literature
- Language and Culture
- Digital and Visual Literacies
- Reading and Miscue Analysis
- Multiple Languages and Literacies
- Social Justice and Political Action
- Community Literacies
- Early Childhood

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT HTTP://WWW2.NCTE.ORG/GROUPS/WLU/INSTITUTE

National Council of Teachers of English