

LITERACIES FOR ALL SUMMER INSTITUTE

July 12-13, 2019

Columbia, South Carolina

Embracing Diversity through Meaningful Inquiry

ALL SUMMER INSTITUTE ACTIVITIES WILL TAKE PLACE AT THE EMBASSY SUITES BY HILTON COLUMBIA GREYSTONE

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

- Catherine Compton-Lilly, University of South Carolina
- Valerie Kinloch, University of Pittsburgh
- Lester Laminack, author and professor emeritus, Western Carolina University
- Julian Vasquez Heilig, California State University, Sacramento

REGISTRATION RATES

WLU/NCTE Member $225

NCTE Member Only $250

Nonmember $300

Student Member $100

*Classroom teacher discount:
$45 off registration fees*

Friday Luncheon $35

TOPICS

- Literacy and Literature
- Language and Culture
- Digital and Visual Literacies
- Reading and Miscue Analysis
- Multiple Languages and Literacies
- Social Justice and Political Action
- Community Literacies
- Early Childhood

PRECONFERENCE WORKSHOP

Thursday, July 11, 2019 • 2:00–6:00 p.m.

Workshop Registration: $75

The Preconference Workshop for the 2019 Literacies for All Summer Institute will continue the tradition of focusing on educational activism.

Keynote Speaker: Julian Vasquez Heilig

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT HTTP://WWW2.NCTE.ORG/GROUPS/WLU/INSTITUTE

National Council of Teachers of English