The awards focus on programs—broad initiatives—rather than single classes or classroom strategies. Programs may be exclusive to the discipline of English or work in combination with other disciplines, college services, or community and workplace groups.

These awards will:
- provide opportunities for professional enrichment by recognizing and publicizing exemplary programs
- encourage collaborations that seek wider perspectives and a variety of points of view
- stimulate colleges to invest in innovative programs that hold the promise of bringing meaningful education to all students
- acknowledge the leadership of National TYCA and NCTE in promoting and recognizing excellence in the teaching of language and literature in our nation’s two-year colleges

How will the entries be judged?

The programs selected will reflect:
- sensitivity to the educational, cultural and ethnic needs of diverse students
- innovative strategies for improving student learning that can be shared so that other teachers and colleges can benefit by adopting or adapting them
- evidence of success in improving student learning

collaboration among those who participate in or are affected by the programs

pedagogy informed by sound theory and practices

Each year the Awards Committee will evaluate submissions and give as many as four awards. Honorable-mention awards may be given to other exceptional programs. The winners will be notified in January. The awards will be presented in Spokane, Washington, April 7, 2021.

A teacher and an instructional administrator from each of the winning and honorable mention programs will be guests of honor for an awards presentation at the annual TYCA Breakfast during the CCCC Convention.

Winning institutions will be granted a $500 travel stipend to attend the event.

Names of the awards winners will be published in Teaching English in the Two-Year College (TETYC), regional TYCA newsletters and journals, and other appropriate NCTE publications. More detailed descriptions will be published in TETYC and on the TYCA/NCTE Web page.

Recipients of winning and honorable-mention programs may be invited to present their programs in TYCA-sponsored presentations at NCTE or CCCC conventions, at other related national conventions, and at the regional conferences where the winning colleges are located.

The National Two-Year College English Association

How will the recipients be honored?

The National Council of Teachers of English and Bedford/St. Martin’s are pleased to announce a call for submissions for the Diana Hacker TYCA Outstanding Programs in English Awards.

What are the Outstanding Programs in English Awards?

The Diana Hacker TYCA Outstanding Programs in English Awards honor the achievements of those two-year college English teachers who, together with administrators, community leaders, and/or colleagues in the English Department or other disciplines or programs, create exemplary programs and initiatives to enhance language learning of students and to enable students of diverse interests and backgrounds to achieve their college, career, and personal goals.
