Utah English Journal published by the Utah Council of Teachers of English

AFFILIATE MULTICULTURAL PROGRAM AWARDS

Established in 1993, the Affiliate Multicultural Program Award honors affiliates that have adopted programs, policies, activities, and other events which encouraged greater participation in and development of multicultural involvement within their affiliates during the 2019–2020 school year. Affiliates were encouraged to design programs to meet their own needs, populations, and unique qualities, including the following: launching a membership drive for underrepresented groups; adding multicultural topics of interest; increasing visibility of culturally diverse members as conference presenters, speakers, officers, etc.; planning special multicultural events that related to English language arts; promoting multiculturalism through activities, such as African American Read-Ins, reading groups focusing on ethnic literature, etc.; and whatever creative ideas affiliates might have developed. Lawrence Baines, Region 5 Representative to the NCTE Standing Committee on Affiliates, chaired the review committee for the award.

Winner: Michigan Council of Teachers of English

NCTE FUND TEACHERS FOR THE DREAM AFFILIATE AWARDS

Since 1993, the NCTE Fund has awarded grants to affiliates to implement initiatives aimed at recruiting English language arts teachers of color. The 2020 awards committee, chaired by NCTE Past President Franki Sibberson, chose this year's award winners for their targeted recruitment strategies to meet the growing shortage of teachers of color in elementary, middle, and secondary American schools and in NCTE affiliates. Grant recipients are as follows:

Michigan Council of Teachers of English
New Jersey Council of Teachers of English
Ohio Council of Teachers of English Language Arts
Texas Council of Teachers of English Language Arts

NCTE STUDENT AFFILIATE EXCELLENCE AWARDS

Established in 2013, this award is given by the NCTE Standing Committee on Affiliates to establish high standards of performance for student affiliates and to honor those affiliates which meet these standards. Qualifications for the award represent standards of excellence to which all student affiliates should aspire. Renee Rude, Region 8 Representative to the NCTE Standing Committee on Affiliates, chaired the review committee for the award. Winning student affiliate:

Kennesaw State University, GA for its third year

Metropolitan State University of Denver for its eighth year
Michigan State University, East Lansing for its fourth year
West Chester University, PA for its second year

NCTE AFFILIATE EXCELLENCE AWARDS

The NCTE Standing Committee on Affiliates is proud to present the 2020 NCTE Affiliate Excellence Awards. This award, established in 1996, recognizes NCTE affiliates that meet high standards of performance for affiliate programming to promote improvement in the teaching of the English language arts. Kirstey Ewald, Chair of the Standing Committee on Affiliates, chaired the review committee. Winning affiliates:

Georgia Council of Teachers of English for its eighteenth year
Ohio Council of Teachers of English Language Arts for its thirteenth year
Pennsylvania Council of Teachers of English Language Arts for its first year
Texas Council of Teachers of English Language Arts for its twelfth year
Virginia Association of Teachers of English for its twelfth year
