

Bylaws of the Two-Year College English Association and the Regional Associations
November 2020

I. The National Organization

- A. Name: Two-Year College English Association (hereafter referred to as National TYCA or TYCA-Regional) [formerly the National Two Year College Council of the Conference on College Composition and Communication]. “Two-year college” encompasses community colleges, junior colleges, technical colleges, and the first two years of college.
- B. Mission: TYCA serves to promote the teaching and study of English in the two-year college, to advance the theories and practices of teaching English in the two-year college, and to provide a national voice for the two-year college in postsecondary education. Recognizing the unique institutional character of the two-year college, open to all students, TYCA is further committed to advancing equitable approaches to literacy education that honor students’ diverse identities, experiences, abilities, and goals, as well as the critical functions of literacy in a democratic society.
- C. Purposes:
 - 1. To identify and articulate the best theories, practices, and pedagogies in teaching English in the two-year college;
 - 2. To establish multiple mediums for the communication of these theories, practices, and pedagogies and for discussion and effective change by the members of National TYCA and the TYCA Regionals;
 - 3. To influence the future of English studies.
- D. Goals:
 - 1. To promote excellence in the theory and practice of teaching English in the first two years of college;
 - 2. To encourage scholarship and research that informs the teaching of writing, literature, and language;
 - 3. To provide a forum for shared professional and disciplinary concerns;
 - 4. To recognize and support diversity in the classroom and in the profession;
 - 5. To promote awareness of the distinctively open academic and social environment of the two-year college;
 - 6. To promote awareness of the effectiveness and adaptability of the two-year college in meeting community needs;
 - 7. To encourage subscriptions to Teaching English in the Two-Year College (hereafter referred to as TETYC);
 - 8. To establish, affirm, and strengthen ties to groups that share our professional commitments;
 - 9. To encourage the participation in TYCA of teachers of English in the first two college years through meetings, conferences, publications and other professional activities;
 - 10. To provide direction for national policies that affect two-year colleges.
- E. Organizational ties: TYCA is an association within the Two-Year College, Four-Year College and University Section (hereafter referred to as the College Section) of The National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE). TYCA maintains strong working relationships with the Conference on College Composition and Communication (CCCC). TYCA also participates fully in the College Forum of NCTE.
- F. Membership:

1. Any dues-paying member of the NCTE College Section who teaches English at a two-year college or who is interested in such teaching may be an individual voting member of TYCA.
2. All regional conferences on English in the two-year college, while maintaining their own membership and dues, will be associations of National TYCA.

II. Two-Year College English Association (National TYCA) Executive Committee
