

AFRICAN AMERICAN READ-IN

2026

© 2026 The National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE)

NCTE and its Black Caucus established the National African American Read-In (AARI) in 1990 to encourage communities to read together, centering African American books and authors. NCTE grants members of the public a perpetual, royalty-free license permitting unlimited printing and copying of this poster for the purpose of promoting the event.

NCTE