

Podcast Script Outline

Description:

For this project, you will investigate the following questions:

- What 3 factors significantly shape your identity?
- What parts of your identity do you choose for yourself?
- How can your identity factors be challenged by society?
- How can you positively influence others with your identity factors?

To answer these questions, you will create a podcast using digital tools to analyze 3 parts of your identity and examine your position in society. This is an audio text, but you will create a written script before recording.

Requirements:

- Record a 7–10-minute podcast using digital voice recording tools (Audacity, Anchor, Canva, GarageBand, etc.)
- Analyze the development of 3 identity factors in your life with supporting details
- Explain the topic and its relevance to your audience
- Use appropriate music, sound effects, etc. to make your podcast
- The final draft should be polished, and you should make significant changes from the first to the final draft.

Instructions:

Using the script outline, write your talking points that you will introduce in your podcast. Be sure to write in your authentic podcast voice. You will use this script when recording your podcast on a microphone

Welcome to my podcast titled “The Art of Life: Conversations on Faith and Creativity.” I am your host, Juliana Rodriguez . Today I will be talking about the three identity factors that made me who I am today! I will be discussing how my identity factors can positively impact others.

(erasing letter keyboard sounds) (keyboard typing again) #1 Drawing! (music slowly fades)

I wanted to try drawing too, seeing how happy drawing made my sister made me want to try drawing too and when I did, I realized why my sister liked drawing so much she could express herself and her creativity as much as she wanted. This identity factor can be challenged by society because they may think drawing is a waste of time and money but it's not and it's a great way to relieve stress.

1 minute	Identity Detail 2: Make-up <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Discuss the background of the topic.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Include the main idea or one or two supporting details.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Share perspective, thoughts, and opinions about the topic.</li> </ul>	During the year 2016, I was very curious about make-up because I noticed that a lot of people liked the way it made them appear. I just thought it looked fun, but I also wanted to try because my sister had also begun using makeup and the eyeshadow colors looked fun. My sister would let me use her makeup despite how young I was, and my mom told her to stop letting me use it because I would use way too much foundation and put it all over my neck like it was lotion. Now, years later I still like makeup, and I don't overuse the products anymore, but I like makeup because I too like the way it makes me appear and I like that I can be creative and express my style through my makeup and eyeshadow's. Makeup can be challenged by society because of animal testing. People may protest and while it's valid there are many alternatives like vegan makeup.

30 sec	Segue: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> can be a sound effect, short musical clip, or a phrase</li> </ul>	( Jazz) (keyboard typing) # 3 Christianity! ( music slowly fades)
1 minute.	Identity Detail 3: Christianity <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Discuss the background of the topic.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Include the main idea or one or two supporting details.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Share perspective, thoughts, and opinions about the topic.</li> </ul>	Before I was born my parents were already Christian, but I'll say the timeline is 2010 because that's when I was born. My parents had converted to become Christians because one of my mom's friends had taken my older sister to church and my sister really liked her experience so she told me parents she wanted them to go too and my parents didn't really like believe in religions but they started going and my parents became Christians so when I came into the picture I was basically born into Christianity and I'm glad I was because I love how the people worship, praise, the relationship one develops with God and the events we get invited to by different churches, we also sometimes go to parks after church and I overall love being a Christian because of the experience you feel is like no other when you feel the holy spirit within you. This identity factor can be challenged by society because many people may have different religion and think Christianity is not real. Others may criticize my religion for what we do and what the bible says.
10 secs	Segue: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> can be a sound effect, short musical clip, or a phrase</li> </ul>	(Jazz) (keyboard typing) Finale (music slowly fades)
50 secs	Conclusion: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Summarize the episode</li> </ul>	What I want the takeaway to be for this podcast is for people to know that they can be so much more than what they expect from themselves. You can lead by example others to be the best that you can be and

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li><input type="checkbox"/> Share major takeaways and why they matter.</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> Answer: How can your identity factors positively influence others?</li><li><input type="checkbox"/> There is a simple sign-off or goodbye to the audience.</li></ul>	positively impact them by showing you can achieve great things. My 3 Identity factors can positively affect others by leading, by example, being creative and expressing your style to others! That is all for today. I hope you enjoyed this podcast and have an amazing day.
